ASTRONOMERS' VIEWS.

Yerkes Professors Deprecate Sensational Reports of Planet Mars.

DR. EDWIN B. FROST AND PROF. E. E. BARNARD, Astronomers of Yerkes Observatory.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, April 22.—We comply with the request of the Los Angeles Times for a statement concerning the planet Mars, which is said to be of unusual interest at present, because it is generally desirous that there should be correctly interpreted to the public scientific matters ... astronomical. ... deprecate the ... of the sensational reports ... appearing so frequently ... the planet Mars and the ... of communicating with ...

... of these great distances, it will be clear to any intelligent person that nothing appreciable will be gained in distance by ascending four or five miles above the earth's surface. Even if we could reduce the distance by 20,000,000 miles, which we can do by waiting until August, 1924, the advantage would be slight, except in viewing the planet through a telescope.

If the decrease in the density of the earth's atmosphere were an argument in favor of making such an ascent, it should be recalled that wireless signals are transmitted through thousands of miles of the earth's atmosphere.

NO PROOF OF LIFE.

It has not been proved that the planet Mars supports any form of intelligent life, such as that on the earth. On the other hand, the largest engineering operations that we have here would not be visible at such a distance with the greatest telescopes now in use.

If it can be established that stray wireless signals received at some stations are not due to sending stations on the earth, then it would be most natural to attribute them to the disturbances which are frequently observed on the sun, other evidence of which we have in the auroral displays, and other magnetic influences which the sun produces upon the earth.

The planet Mars is a very interesting object to observe in a good

CAILLAUX IS CONVICTED.

Find Extenuating Circumstances.

Senate Finds Him Guilty of Having Commerce with the Enemy.

Charges of High Treason Against ex-Premier are Eliminated.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

PARIS, April 22. — Joseph Caillaux, former Premier of France, this evening was found guilty of having had commerce with the enemy by the High Court of the Senate. The vote was 150 to 91.

Conviction on this count renders him liable to imprisonment in a fortress for from one to five years or banishment.

The court by a vote of 128 to 110 found that there were extenuating circumstances in M. Caillaux's case. It then adjourned until tomorrow afternoon at 2:30, when the sentence will be read to M. Caillaux.

The crime of which M. Caillaux was convicted is covered by Article LXXVIII of the Military Code, which calls for a sentence of banishment for a maximum of five years or a minimum of one year.

The charges of high treason and intercourse with the enemy against former Premier Joseph Caillaux were eliminated by the High Court of the Senate today by a vote of 213 to 28. This eliminated the possibility of the death penalty being inflicted.

"RECKLESSLY IMPRUDENT."

Caillaux, while escaping conviction for high treason, was found to have been recklessly imprudent and very close to treasonable ambitions, for such is the interpretation of the verdict of "guilty of commerce and correspondence with the enemy," rendered by the French Senate.

This is the first verdict of the sort in any of the Allied countries since the war began—"commerce" as interpreted by the Senators who were the judges, not meaning financial trading, but commerce by means of common ideas, while "correspondence" is employed in the sense of association.

After the court had disposed of the high treason charge and that of "intelligence with the enemy" in less than four hours word was passed that a decision was impending and Luxembourg gardens were filled to overflowing by dense crowds. Police reserves had to be called out.

The partisans of the former Premier were thrilled with joy and hope when the treason charge was eliminated. They confidently predicted acquittal and began to apportion among themselves the portfolios in the Cabinet which Caillaux was expected to form within six months after his release.

The doors of the deliberation chamber were closed, almost hermetically sealed. But occasionally a dishevelled, perspiring Senator would rush out of the Chamber and make a direct line for the Senate bar, where he was immediately surrounded by correspondents offering to purchase for him the best vintages in France if only he would talk.

CHAMBER A BEDLAM.

At times the noise—shouts and the ringing of bells—heard within the Chamber was simply deafening. It seemed on several occasions as though the deliberations might degenerate into a free-for-all fight. It was a stormy scene, a juror's room in a criminal court building multiplied by twenty.

The verdict may mean a sentence of five years' banishment for Caillaux, which may, however, be diminished to one year. Incarceration in a fortress is another sentence which may be pronounced tomorrow when the high court reconvenes. It was the conscensus of opinion that the sentence would be light and that the twenty-eight months which Caillaux has spent in jail and a sanatorium will be considered.

The former Premier's attorneys were disconsolate over the verdict and rushed in an automobile to the Neuilly Sanatorium to inform Caillaux of the verdict. The defendant had remained in the sanatorium through the day's sitting. Before they started away, however, M. Moutet said to the Associated Press:

"M. Caillaux was convicted not for what he has done, but for what he

HOOVER-JOHNSON PREVIEW.

New York "World" Writer Visits California and Comments on Politics.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK, April 22.—Charles Michelson, political correspondent in Washington for the New York World (Democratic,) who is touring California and writing a survey of the political situation in that State as he finds it, has written the following article for the World:

LOS ANGELES, April 21.—The nearer to primary day in California, the more doubtful the issue between Hiram Johnson and Herbert Hoover becomes.

It is really a new experiment in politics; something along the lines of the curious results accomplished by Hoover during the war, when, in the face of all the students of public psychology he had us all eating war bread; doing without beef when he announced beefless days, and without bacon when he called for porkless meals; when he had us laying up our machines on gasless Sundays and when we generally did as he said without other compulsion than the appeal to save.

Now an organization in California is trying to bring out the vote that is ordinarily absolutely dormant; to interest in politics men and women who have had nothing to do with politics; and with this strange army to fight the Johnson machine, the most efficient political band that ever learned the strategy of the ballot box.

It is not surprising that the Johnson captains, trained veterans

LATEST NEWS.

Germany's Secret Air Fleet.

PARIS, April 22. — Gen. Masterman of the Entente commission of control in Germany, in a report made public today, severely arraigned Germany for the way the inter-Allied commission has been obstructed in its mission. He said all sorts of difficulties have been placed in the commission's way and that access to places the commission desired to inspect has been prevented. The commission, says Gen. Masterman, found three secret aviation material depots near Berlin and that if the commission were given increased facilities, Gen. Masterman is sure many more such depots would be found.

Stockton Red Guilty.

STOCKTON, April 22.—Leo Ellis, native of Russia and former I.W.W. leader and organizer here, was found guilty of criminal syndicalism on two out of three counts by a jury in Judge J. A. Plummer's court here tonight after five hours' deliberation. During the trial Ellis took the witness stand in his own behalf and admitted his intimate affiliations with the organization. Ellis is the fourth I.W.W. in succession to be found guilty in San Joaquin county.

Burglar Gets Bonds.

Four hundred dollars' worth of Liberty Bonds were stolen from the residence of J. B. Perry, 3947 La Salle avenue, by burglars who entered the house with a pass key last night, according to a report made to Detectives Carpenter and Nelms of University Station.

Finale of "Liquor War."

MARQUETTE (Mich.) April 22. —The three Scalcucci brothers, charged with illegally possessing liquor in connection with the so-called "whisky rebellion" in Iron county were found guilty by a Federal court jury today. In imposing fines of $100 each, Judge C. W. Sessions blamed Prosecuting Attorney Martin S. McDonough for the fact that the respondents stood convicted. The judge asserted that notoriety given the Iron River occurrence was the most unfortunate fact in connection with it. "A mountain has been made out of a mole hill and there has been foolish and boyish conduct on both sides," he said.

Victim of Explosion.

Lawrence L. Barber, an automobile salesman, 32 years of age, stopped his automobile at West Thirtieth street and Vermont avenue last night and lit a match to see if his gasoline tank was full. It was, and the gasoline exploded. Mr. Barber was taken to the Receiving Hospital by Patrolmen Magness and Farrant of University Station. Police Surgeon Beggs treated his badly burned face and head. Later, he was taken to his home at 2302 South Grand avenue.

Aguilar to Command.

EL PASO, April 22.—Gen. Candido Aguilar, son-in-law of President Carranza, has been assigned to command Mexican Federal troops in Chihuahua, Coahuila, Durango and Zacatecas, according to Excelsior of Mexico City. A force of 8000 men will be placed at his disposal. Troops now in Chihuahua will be sent to Sonora.

RED REVOLT IS QUELLED; STRIKE IS CALLED OFF; MINES TO RESUME TODAY

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

BUTTE (Mont.) April 22.—Under command of Col. Hermann Hall, parts of three regiments comprising two companies and a headquarters company, arrived tonight from Fort George Wright and Camp Lewis.

"We're here because we were sent here," said Col. Hall, who said he would have no formal statement to make until he became acquainted with conditions.

The troops were requested by Gov. S. V. Stewart and were dispatched by orders of the commander of the Western Department at San Francisco with instructions to preserve order in the Butte district.

There was no demonstration on the arrival of the troops. The crowd at the station was small and the troops detrained and marched uptown to their quarters without any excitement. A few persons gathered in groups to watch them, but there was little comment. The troops were put in quarters and will not go on patrol duty until tomorrow, the officers said.

Principal developments in the labor situation today following the shooting of fifteen pickets and one policeman in rioting near the Never-sweat mine yesterday were the announcement by mine officials that all properties will be reopened tomorrow and the unofficial announcement that Metal Mine Workers' Union No. 800, I.W.W., had called the strike off and would discontinue picketing.

That city was quiet today, only a few minor disturbances being reported. Confidence was restored by announcement that troops would arrive tonight.

Physicians reported that only two of the men wounded yesterday were in a critical condition, and that the fourteen others will recover.

Sheriff O'Rourke declared that he had established that the building from which the first shot was fired in yesterday's clash was the Simons boarding house. Mrs. John Looney, proprietress, in a public statement denied this.

A watchman at the Butte Daily Bulletin office was shot fatally this morning by a fellow watchman. The newspaper management declared the shooting was accidental. The Bulletin is the official organ of the I.W.W. union.

County Attorney N. A. Rotering announced that his assistants are investigating yesterday's trouble.

TO OPEN MINES.

John Gillie, general manager of mines of the Anaconda Copper Mining Company, issued this statement today:

"All mines resume work tomorrow morning. Full protection will be given workers."

Strikers gathered at the headquarters in I.W.W. Hall today, but there was no demonstration and no attempt was made to picket the mines. Only one clash between strikers and union men occurred. No arrests were made.

Engineers and pump men had no difficulty in reaching their posts at the mines today. No miners reported and no mining was attempted by the mining companies, all of which expect, however, to resume tomorrow.

LIGGETT TO SEND TROOPS.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 22.—Announcement that he had complied with the request of Gov. Stewart of Montana that troops be sent to Butte as the result of mine strike disturbances there was made here today by Lieut.-Gen. Hunter Liggett, commanding the Western Department of the Army. The size of the detachment was left to Maj.-Gen. John F. Morrison, commanding Camp Lewis, he said.

SOLDIERS LEAVE FOR BUTTE.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

SPOKANE, April 22.—A detachment of the Twenty-first Infantry left Fort George Wright, near here, early today, for Butte, Mont., following receipt of orders late last night from Western Department headquarters.

The troops, under the command of Lieut.-Col. Ameritus Mitchell, took with them full equipment with heavy marching packs, it was said. Their size, according to Col. George B. Duncan, commanding officer at Fort Wright, is indefinite. He declined to state how many men were included in the detachment.

At Butte, Col. Hall from Camp Lewis, Wash., will assume command of the troops, Col. Duncan stated.

TACOMA, April 22. — Officers at Camp Lewis this morning refused to reveal their plans for moving troops to Butte.

"Nothing to say," declared Col. Nolan, in command in absence of Maj.-Gen. Morrison. "The movement is secret so far as I am concerned."

MINERS FAIL TO REPORT.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

TOPEKA (Nev.) April 22. — Prompted by a rumor that a general strike would be called today, 70 per cent. of the miners in the Tonopah district were reported to have failed to appear for work when the whistles blew. No formal strike call had been issued to the men, as far as could be learned, and no demands had been presented to the operators.

In the Divide district, operators reported full crews and no dissatisfaction of any sort.

Mike Moriarity, who is under indictment here on a syndicalism charge and who was released on bonds two weeks ago, was returned to jail yesterday and his bonds doubled. The charge is that he violated the terms of his original bond by agitating for a strike. Four Nevada State police arrived here today.

JEWELRY WORTH BIG FORTUNE IS STOLEN.

ALMOST PRICELESS GEMS OF FILM STAR'S WIFE LOOT OF UNKNOWN THIEVES.

In the biggest jewelry robbery of a year, gems valued at several hundred thousand dollars were reported last night as stolen from the jewel box of Mrs. Earle Williams, wife of the photoplay star, who lives at 448 South Catalina street. Mrs. Williams told the police that she was not sure whether the jewelry had been stolen from her home in this city or from her apartment at the Hotel Coronado, where she had been staying until a few days ago. The haul includes a string of ninety-nine pearls, almost priceless; a solitaire sapphire ring of six carats with a platinum setting, a flexible platinum bracelet set with one three-carat sapphire and four one-half-carat diamonds; a gold invalidier set with twenty-four pear-shaped amethyst drops alternating with twenty-four pearls; one pair of amethyst and pearl ear-rings; a pink tourmaline bar pin containing twenty-four stones; a crescent-shaped gold brooch set with nine white sapphires, and an oval-shaped platinum ring set with three diamonds surrounded by sapphires.

No clue to the thieves has been found.

Mrs. Williams was Miss Florine Walz, a Brooklyn, N. Y., heiress, and was married to the motion-picture star in October, 1918. The wedding led to a breach-of-promise suit by Miss Roma Raymond, who said she lived with the actor as his wife for five years and that he told her he would marry her as soon as he was getting a big enough salary. She asked for $100,000 damages, and on June 29, 1919, was awarded $50,000 by a jury in Judge Myers's court. A cash settlement for approximately $40,000 was made July 25 last. This heart-balm case was the most sensational of the sort heard in the local courts for years.

FARMERS FORM BIG COMBINE TO CONTROL WHEAT.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

KANSAS CITY, April 22.—Representatives of virtually every wheat-raising community in the United States, attending the annual convention of the National Wheat Growers' Association, tonight voted unanimously to form a national combine for the control of cereal products. Agricultural experts in attendance said the organization would be the largest combine of farmers ever attempted.

Elimination of the middleman is one of the purposes in the resolution embracing the association's action, which was stated to be necessary "in order to increase the producers emolument to a fair profit and at the same time reduce the cost of living."

A committee of seven was appointed to outline the new organization, which provides for local co-operative organization of growers, centering in co-operative marketing associations with headquarters in the market centers.

Stock in the terminal marketing associations will be limited to the farmers joined in the local co-operative associations.

District or terminal marketing organizations in turn will be merged into a national marketing association. The district and national organizations are intended as the channels through which all products of America's farms will reach the ultimate consumer.

The plans provide, also, for co-operative flour and cereal milling associations.

The initial meeting of the nation-wide combine will be announced at the closing session of the convention tomorrow.

ORDER SUGAR-PRICE QUIZ.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, April 22.—Sugar refiners were asked today by the Department of Justice to come here Monday for a conference to discuss "the general situation affecting sugar supplies and prices."

Howard Figg, assistant to the Attorney-General, in charge of the price reduction campaign, said he proposed to go thoroughly into every phase of the sugar situation. He would not discuss details. It is understood that the foreign market will be studied with a view to determining methods for increasing imports.

HUBERT KITTLE ARRESTED

Embezzlement of a Large Quantity of Liquor Charged to ex-Policeman.

Hubert Kittle, ex-policeman and legislative councilman for the local Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, was arrested last night by order of Dist.-Atty. Woolwine, charged with the embezzlement of $2000 worth of liquor from Joseph Lillard of Vernon. Ten cases of fine whisky were seized in two raids, one at Kittle's home at 1342 North Coronado street, where Kittle was arrested, and the other at the home of O. M. McConnell, 218 East Forty-third street. Kittle is held in the County Jail in default of $5000 bail which he hopes to raise today. He denies the charge.

Kittle resigned from the police force some weeks ago, following a series of attacks by a local newspaper. He returned to his old vocation of locomotive fireman and was indicted by the Federal grand jury a few days ago, with twenty-eight others, for conspiracy to violate the Lever law in obstructing the shipment of necessities of life, the indictments growing out of the strike of switchmen here.

Dist.-Atty. Woolwine indicated that startling developments may come as a result of the new charge against Kittle, but refused to go into details at present. The raid on Kittle's home was conducted by Officers Wilcox, Walter Hunter, Dennison and Cohen and that on McConnell's house by Officers J. F. Smith, Quick and Capt. J. D. Hunter. The liquor consisted of thirty-two dozen half-pints and one dozen quarts.

Kittle, it is stated at the District Attorney's office, has been going around in a new automobile and showing other evidences of wealth which seemed incompatible with the positions he held. These facts cast suspicion on him.

A. F. RAMIREZ, CAFE MAN, DIES SUDDENLY.

Abe F. Ramirez, one of the four well-known brothers who conduct the Spanish Kitchen at 127 North Broadway, died suddenly last night at his home, 109 South Olive street. He was 52 years of age and was a native of Monterey county. The body is at the undertaking rooms of Cunningham & O'Connor, 1031 South Grand avenue. Funeral arrangements will be made today.

IOWDEN GETS IOWA SUPPORT.

Will Receive Twenty-two Votes in Convention.

Cummins Assails Wilson at Republican Meeting.

Johnson Still Leading in Counting in Nebraska.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

DES MOINES (Iowa) April 22.—Instructions to cast 32 of Iowa's 26 votes at the Republican National Convention for Governor Frank O. Lowden of Illinois for President were given here today by the Republican State Convention and district caucuses. No instructions were given the other four delegates by their districts.

President Wilson and the peace treaty were condemned and the railroad law commended by Senator Cummins, president pro tempore of the Senate, in an address to the convention.

Predicting Republican success next November, Senator Cummins said a Republican President should be chosen "because it is high time that the President should be a right-minded man."

"For surely," he continued, "eight years of mystery, of uncertainty, of inconsistency, of abnormality, of inconceivable twisting and turning in the office of the Chief Executive are punishment enough for all the sins and blunders we may have committed, and we have earned our emancipation."

Senator Cummins characterized the law returning the railroads to private ownership as "a great forward step in progressive and constructive legislation," containing "a code for protection of railroad workers."

Reiterating advocacy of anti-strike legislation, Mr. Cummins said the Railroad Labor Board is "a tribunal which will render to railroad wage workers a surer and higher justice than they can ever hope to secure through a strike."

The Treaty of Versailles will be a campaign issue, said Mr. Cummins, who asserted that it contained "unconstitutional and treasonable provisions."

The greatest problem now facing America, Mr. Cummins said, is "to readjust the disordered relation which has inevitably appeared between wages and compensation for personal service and the price of commodities." Increased production, he added, was the remedy.

OFFICIAL MICHIGAN VOTE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

LANSING (Mich.) April 22.—Senator Hiram W. Johnson's plurality in the Presidential preference primary in Michigan April 5 was 44,-373, according to official figures announced by the State Canvassing Board today. Herbert C. Hoover, whose name appeared on both Republican and Democratic ballots, won the Democratic indorsement by 5344, William G. McAdoo taking second place.

The official figures announced by the canvassing board are:

Republican: Senator Johnson 156,-929; Maj.-Gen. Wood, 112,568; Gov. Frank O. Lowden of Illinois, 42,-418; Herbert Hoover, 33,503; Gen. Pershing, 17,971; William G. Simpson, Detroit, 2857; Senator Poindexter, 2662.

Democratic: Herbert Hoover, 28,-935; William G. McAdoo, 15,641; William J. Bryan, 17,910; Gov. Edward I. Edwards of New Jersey, 16,612; Atty.-Gen. Palmer, 11,187; scattering, 589.

On the Socialist ticket Eugene V. Debs received 5310 votes.

The canvassing board's tabulation showed that Senator Johnson carried but twenty-seven counties, while Wood carried fifty-three. Three went to Gov. Lowden.

OMAHA, April 22.—The lead established by Senator Johnson of California in the early count of votes in last Tuesday's primary lengthened as more precinct returns were brought in. In 1054 out of 1549 precincts in the State, Johnson had a lead of 11,289 votes over Gen. Leonard Wood, with Gen. Pershing third. The vote was: Johnson, 41,753; Wood, 30,354; Pershing, 10,640; Hines, 1295.

In the Democratic race for delegates-at-large, William J. Bryan retained his place among the first four and appeared to be strengthening his position as each batch of out-State votes rolled in.

NORTH TURNING TOWARD HOOVER

Counties Above Tehachepi in Strong Alignment.

Job-Holders Only Henchmen of Johnson, is Claim.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 22.—Northern California is fast breaking away from the Johnson political machine, and lining up for Hoover, according to independent reports received today from many districts in the northern part of the State by Ralph P. Merritt, campaign manager of the Hoover Republican Club of California.

At Red Bluff an extensive campaign to cover the last two weeks before election is well under way. As members of the Hoover Republican Club are all volunteer workers, a different committee works each day. D. B. Lyon, president of the club, is a leading rancher. Among the other active workers are George Champlain, crop insurance and real estate man; P. S. Davis, head of the Tehama County Farm Bureau; Assemblyman Harry Polsley; J. D. Sweeney, city Superintendent of schools; W. A. Armstrong, business man; Rev. E. S. Bartlan, acting secretary of the Chamber of Commerce; Dr. W. Gavey, John Miller, newspaper editor, and H. D. Jerrett, attorney, all leading citizens of Tehama county.

Headed by T. C. Taylor, a mining man, the Hoover Republican Club of Shasta county is conducting a whirlwind campaign, in which two of Taylor's aides are Dr. Ernest Dozier, secretary of the club, and Dudley Saeltzer, one of the largest merchants in Northern California, with a strong women's auxiliary.

Assemblyman C. O. McCray is campaigning for Hoover, declaring that machine politicians and job-holders form the backbone of the Johnson organization. Roscoe J. Anderson got into the Hoover fight when he became indignant over reports that Hoover was a British sympathizer. "Hoover rose from a poor boy to be head of the American Mining Congress, and is the greatest exponent of Americanism in the world," said Anderson. "Wherever he has gone in China, Australia, Russia and other nations, he has introduced American methods, American ideas, American machinery and the American eight-hour day. The entire consular service of the United States has not done so much for the promotion of American enterprise as Herbert Hoover."

At Corning, E. F. Conway, a veteran newspaper man, who supported Johnson for the Senate, is out for Hoover on the ground that "Johnson in the Senate accomplished nothing constructive or of real moment."

Capt. W. D. Woodson, who was on Pershing's staff, and in 1919 worked in co-operation with Hoover in the Meta district, is out for Hoover, as is G. H. Flourney, horticultural commissioner of Tehama county.

Men and women of Glenn county are co-operating in an active canvass.

BIG MEN FOR HOOVER.

Another man conspicuous in the new politics is G. Harold Powell, general manager of the California Fruit Growers' Exchange in peace times and in charge of perishable foods under Hoover during the war. C. C. Teague, president of the Walnut Growers' Association, is another, and on the list figure Henry S. McKee, vice-president of the Merchants National Bank, and head of the Liberty Loan drives in Southern California.

Then there is Ralph Arnold, director of the Universal Oil Company; West, vice-president of the Sierra Power Company, and Eldon, vice-president of the First National Bank.

In another group figure Dr. Aurelia Reinhart, president of the Mills College, the big Western college for women; Dr. Bovard, president of the University of Southern California; Silas J. Evans, president of Occidental University, the Presbyterian college, and an unending number of names of similar import.

The question is whether these folks, eminent in their own lines, can accomplish anything in the strange field of politics. Nobody knows, because no such aggregation ever came together for a political purpose before.

To the old-timers of the Johnson army, their political advent is a highbrow joke. To others it is a crusade.

telescope. The general surface is of a strong yellowish color, but there are large dark markings which are sometimes of a greenish color, and some parts of which are subject to probably a seasonal variation. There are also white polar caps; in the winter of the planet these extend down to middle latitudes, and in the summer melt to small size, which suggests that they are probably due to snow.

POLAR CAPS.

In the south polar regions of Mars there seem to be mountain ranges. Their presence is revealed by the melting polar cap, which always leaves behind it at these places white strips that more slowly melt away. These white strips seem to be due to snow on considerable elevations.

The rotation of the planet can be seen readily, even in telescopes of four or five inches aperture, by watching it for a short time. This rotation is also clearly shown on photographs of Mars. The length of its day, from such observations, is about thirty-seven minutes longer than our day. Mars rises in the east at about sunset now. It can be readily recognized by its red color, and by being the brightest object in that part of the sky.

Prior to this M. Moutet had said, in expressing his conviction that the Senate would find extenuating circumstances:

"The length of the sentence does not matter. The fact that there is a sentence at all means the defeat of liberty of thought."

It seems probable that Calliaux will be condemned to pay the cost of the trial, amounting to more than 800,000 francs. Among these is a bill for investigation in the United States, which is one of the prominent items, Calliaux's counsel saying it would reach $30,000.

NO HOPE FOR STEAMER.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

BOSTON, April 22.—Hope for the safety of the wooden steamer William O'Brien, which sent wireless calls for assistance 500 miles east of New York last Sunday night, was abandoned tonight when the coast guard cutter Acushnet gave up the search.

CHICAGO OPENS HOOVER CLUBS.

Organization for Presidential Campaign is Instituted.

Will Direct Activities for the Middle Western States.

Difference of Opinion Cause Trouble in Wood's Camp.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, April 22.—The organization of a campaign in Chicago to help land the Republican Presidential nomination for Herbert Hoover has begun.

Headquarters were opened in the Congress Hotel.

Within a few days Hoover's Chicago headquarters are to be in full swing. Inside of forty-eight hours the local campaign committee which is to manage this end of the Hoover campaign is to be announced.

While at the start the intention is said to be to devote especial attention to Chicago, the field will broaden rapidly. It is planntd to direct a Hoover campaign throughout all Illinois from the Chicago offices in the Congress Hotel. Then the scope will branch out until within a fortnight it is believed Chicago will be the center of activities for the Hoover movement throughout the entire Middle West.

"The Congress Hotel headquarters have been engaged," said Robert Stevenson yesterday. Mr. Stevenson was formerly prominently connected with the Federal Food Conservation Bureau in this State, and he returned ten days ago from New York, where he is understood to have held a long conference with the organizers of the national Hoover campaign in their quarters recently removed from the Vanderbilt to the Grand Central Palace Hotel.

TROUBLE IN WOOD CAMP.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK, April 22.—Differences of opinion between Frank H. Hitchcock and William Cooper Procter over the handling of Gen. Wood's campaign have reached the open-warfare stage, and a change in the management was said today to be imminent. It was learned that the trouble has been put up directly to Gen. Wood for adjustment. Friends of Mr. Hitchcock declared he would be vindicated and that as national manager of the Wood campaign, would hereafter take precedence over Col. Procter.

The reversals which the Wood campaign has recently met with in Michigan, Illinois, South Dakota, as well as the situation in Ohio, led directly to the clash of authority between Mr. Hitchcock and Col. Procter.

On March 5 last Gen. Wood himself selected Frank H. Hitchcock as his national campaign manager. Mr. Hitchcock's duties were those of a field manager, with authority to go into each State.

Friends of Col. Procter, it is said, circulated stories that Mr. Hitchcock was to blame for allowing Gen. Wood to make a fight in these States, or in any State where a favorite son was a candidate.

Mr. Hitchcock's friends explained that Col. Procter had made arrangements for Gen. Wood to make a fight in South Dakota, Michigan and Illinois, and even Ohio and Nebraska, before Mr. Hitchcock entered the campaign. The situation reached a stage that Mr. Hitchcock returned to New York and demanded a "showdown."

MEDIATION FAILS.

Learning of the manner in which Mr. Hitchcock viewed the situation, Col. Procter hurried to New York and sought to patch up the trouble through a conference with the local Wood managers. His mission was not successful, however, for he received a chilly reception.

Col. Procter today failed to get in touch with Norman J. Gould, eastern Wood manager, but made arrangements to meet him tomorrow. Mr. Procter declined to comment on the situation, but he said he might have something to say before leaving tomorrow.

Mr Hitchcock also refused to discuss the matter, but his friends declared that he had no doubt as to what Gen. Wood's decision will be. His friends said that he is going right on with his work of managing Gen. Wood's campaign.

HAS "AMERICAN LEAGUE" PLAN.

President of Uruguay Asserts Defense Union Needed.

Organization Could Arbitrate Boundary Disputes.

Dr. Brum Suggests Declaration Like Monroe Doctrine.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

MONTEVIDEO, April 21.—Formation of an "American League" on a basis of absolute equality between American nations for common action against aggression threatening any one of them from outside nations and for arbitration of inter-American disputes was proposed by Dr. Baltasar Brum, president of Uruguay, in addressing students of the University of Montevideo tonight.

Dr. Brum declared other American countries should make a declaration similar to the Monroe Doctrine, to secure the solidarity of the American continent. He said should any member of the "American League" have a controversy with the League of Nations, that nation should ask for the co-opertanon of the "American League" in settling the controversy.

Taking up the Monroe Doctrine, Dr. Brum pointed out how it had "constituted, on the whole an efficacious safeguard to the territorial integrity of many American countries."

Dr. Brum asserted the entry of the United States into the war was "anticipated applicestion of the Monroe Doctrine," adding:

"Owing to the state in which European countries remain after the struggle, it may be said that fear of invasion by them in America has been removed for many years."

FORESIGHT NOW NEEDED.

"But is that sufficient reason for us to take no interest in the future, and turn away from the Monroe Doctrine with the pretext that it is now unnecessary?" he asked. "I believe that today, more than ever, we should use foresight in searching for formulas that may assure forever the peace and full independence of American countries."

Referring to his scheme for an "American League," as the same as President Wilson proposed organizing, Dr. Brum thought it could coexist with the League of Nations without difficulty.

He painted out that unsettled boundary questions were still embarrassing many American countries, and said settlement would be possible by the "American League" without appeal to the League of Nations. Regarding the internal question of individual nations, he thought no intervention should be permitted unless two-thirds of the Allied countries decided to intervene.

President Brum expressed belief that the American political world should also declare against diplomatic interference by outside nations.

DISPATCH DENIES JAPS FIRED ON AMERICANS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, April 22.—An official dispatch from Tokio today to Maj.-Gen. Inouye, Japanese military attache here, said reports that Japanese troops had fired on the barracks of American engineers at Hailar, Manchuria, were erroneous.

The message said the fighting at Hailar was between Japanese troops and crowds, mostly Czech and Chinese soldiers, who sought to rescue six Bolsheviats being transferred to Manchuria for trial by court-martial.

Extra Annapolis Test Ordered.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

ANNAPOLIS (Md.) April 22.—Because of many vacancies in the regiment of midshipmen and estimates that a sufficient quota will not be filled by February and April examinations of candidates, a third examination will be held in June, it was announced today by academy officials. Between 1300 and 1400 vacancies will follow the graduation of the first class in June.

JOHNSON JURY DISAG

Whether Mrs. Mildred Johnson was handed fictitious checks by a "mysterious stranger," who said he did so out of the goodness of his heart, or she wrote out the checks herself and signed the name "S. L. Bell," was put up to a jury yesterday in Judge Craig's court, and the jury disagreed, standing eight to four for conviction. Judge Craig continued the case to Tuesday, to be reset for a second trial.

But the amateurs have refused to be scared, and believe they will bring into the political field enough new elements to counterbalance the weight of experience and the advantage of organization. If they succeed in unhorsing the professional politicians it will inaugurate a new system of politics, and cause a revision of the whole art of winning elections.

It is perhaps the most interesting departure in modern politics. It may not succeed; the Johnson people say it cannot even come close enough to success to alarm, but they are watching its manifestation with interest that hardly jibes with their assurances of unconcern.

MINISTERS ENROLLED.

It has been politically axiomatic that the clergy could not be interested in campaigns and that an attempt at such an unconventionality was fraught with gravest dangers. The Hoover people did not know that political axiom. They sent postal cards to the clergymen listed in the city directory and in twenty-four hours they had enrolled among the Hoover supporters 140 [illegible] ministers of all denominations, a bishop or two.

The experiment has not been enough to indicate how [illegible] these new recruits to [illegible] be, but the response to [illegible] batch of postal cards indicates far from the traveled [illegible] campaign is venturing. Subscription rate over pre-war price of The Times has advanced [illegible]

Constantly hoping that material prices would drop, The Times for many months has been carrying on its own shoulders this enormous increase as shown by the table above.

The serious paper shortage now adds a new difficulty by making it necessary to further curtail advertising volume, while indications point to still higher prices for many newspaper materials.

The Times confidently assumes that patrons will understand severe conditions under which it operates; that these advances are utterly beyond control and must be met just as any business must meet rising prices. In holding down its selling price to 5 cents, that, even with the new increase, is only 40 per cent. above the pre-war rate, The Times believes it has made a notable showing as compared with nearly all other industries.

One thing The Times is determined to do, regardless of increased costs or any other considerations, and that it to continue making a newspaper, day by day, better, more readable and more entertaining than ever before. The scope, variety and quality of its news material shall be maintained; its news service shall continue unrivaled in completeness and its exclusive features. In spite of difficulties or costs, shall be maintained. No matter to what advertising volume must be cut down, and no matter how great sacrifice must be, The Times will adhere to its time-honored principle of placing the interest of readers first. In fact, in this way in the long run, The Times can best serve the welfare of its advertisers.

After May 1, 1920, the carrier-delivered price of The Times will be $1.05 per month.

GRUNAU UNION MEETING TODAY.

Session Called "to Clear up the Entire Situation."

"Outlawy" Strike Leader Says "Majority will Rule."

St. Louis District Yardmen Vote to Return to Work.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

CHICAGO, April 22.—John Grunau, president of the Chicago Yardmen's Association, this afternoon called a meeting for tomorrow afternoon to "clear up the entire situation."

Members of his organization and of the other "outlaw" union, the United Enginemen, were invited to attend, along with Judge K. M. Landis, John M. Glenn representing Illinois manufacturers, and general managers of the railroads.

Mr. Grunau said he had no recommendations to make to the men. "Any proposition they may propose will be voted on," he said. "They are free to suggest any action they desire, and the vote of the majority will rule."

BACK TO WORK IN ST. LOUIS.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

ST. LOUIS, April 22.—The striking yardmen in the St. Louis district have today voted to return to work pending a decision on their wage demands by the Railroad Labor Board, provided their seniority rights are not denied them.

PRESIDENT REFUSES AID.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, April 22.—Arguments on the wage increases demanded by conductors and switchmen were made before the Railroad Labor Board today by L. E. Sheppard, president of the Order of Railway Conductors, and Samuel Heberling, president of the Switchmen's Union of North America. Both cited the rise in the cost of living during the past few years to support the plea for higher wages.

Demands of the switchmen call for pay increases of approximately 58 per cent. with time and a half for overtime, Sundays and holidays.

Similar overtime allowances are asked by the conductors together with wages sufficient to enable them to live on a pre-war standard. They also ask an allowance for expenses when kept away from home.

Final setback to the efforts of the unauthorized strikers to get their cases before the board was given today when Secretary Tumulty told representatives of the yardmen's association that President Wilson would not intercede in their behalf as long as they remained away from work.

PROPOSAL REJECTED.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

NEW YORK, April 22.—The proposal of striking enginemen and firemen in the Hoboken yards of the Erie Railroad that they return to work in a body and be guaranteed their seniority rights was rejected by the railroad officials today.

Railroad officials insisted each striker should stand on his own record, and let it be known that some of the men now out would not be taken back.

PORTLAND'S FREIGHT EMBARGOES LIFTED.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

PORTLAND, April 22.—All freight embargoes declared here on account of the switchmen's strike were lifted today, according to announcements by railroad officials, except a few local ones on the Spokane, Portland and Seattle Railway. Five more crews of switchmen were added to forces working here within the past twenty-four hours, it was said late today.

POLES ATTACKED BY REDS.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

HELSINGFORS, April 22.—An attack by soviet troops upon members of the Polish colony in Petrograd who were holding a demonstration in protest against the arrest of the Polish bishop in Petrograd Easter Sunday, is reported here. Several Poles were killed or wounded and others were arrested, it is declared.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

NEW YORK, April 22.—An indictment charging first-degree murder was returned by the grand jury today against Thomas W. Simpkin, itinerant printer, who shot and killed Dr. James Wright Markoe, noted surgeon, during last Sunday's service in St. George's Episcopal Church.

BANKERS' TRIALS DELAYED.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SACRAMENTO, April 22.—W. J. Burris, president of the First National Bank of Newman, Cal., and Frank P. Gomez, cashier, appeared today for arraignment before the Federal Court here on indictments charging false diversion of the bank's funds, but as they were without attorneys, a week's delay was granted.

Indictments were returned yesterday by the Federal grand jury against Burris and Gomez. The bank of Newman was closed in January by Federal examiners, and it was said at the time a shortage of about $500,000 existed.

ON MORE SERIOUS CHARGE.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 22.—Mrs. Alice Harris Woodcock, convicted last night of perjury in connection with the trial of her husband for the murder of Edward Kelley, appeared in court today in answer to a charge of murder placed against her also as a result of Kelly's death, and her case was put over until April 24 to be set for trial.

Date of Mrs. Woodcock's sentence as a result of the perjury conviction has been set for Saturday.

Application for the release of Mrs. Woodcock on bail was denied by Superior Judge Ward, who tried both of the Woodcock cases.

Woodcock, an educator, shot and killed Kelly, a newspaper employee, on the night of September 18, because of an alleged affront offered Mrs. Woodcock. He was acquitted, but both he and Mrs. Woodcock were indicted for perjury. Woodcock is a fugitive.

CONVICTED AS MURDERESS.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

QUEBEC, April 22.—Mrs. Marie Anne Houde Gagnon was found guilty yesterday of torturing and murdering her 16-year-old stepdaughter, Aurore Gagnon, and was sentenced to be hanged October 1.

The girl, after being beaten, burned with a red-hot poker and made to walk barefoot in the snow, was forced to drink poison, the evidence disclosed. The post-mortum examination of the body revealed fifty-four wounds. The defense pleaded insanity.

NAB ALLEGED COMMUNIST.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

SALT LAKE CITY (Utah) April 22.—L. E. Katterfield, also known as Leslie Kingsley, said to be national organizer of the Communist labor party, was arrested here today by government agents shortly after his release from the City Jail, where he was held on a minor charge.

ROBINSON DISCUSSES STRIKE IN BAY CITY.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 22.—Henry M. Robinson, Los Angeles member of President Wilson's second industrial conference, speaking before the San Francisco center of the California Civic League here today, described the work of the conference and the regional and Federal boards it proposed to establish to hear labor disputes. Mr. Robinson said he thought establishment of the board would not end strikes but would probably reduce their number.

STRIKE BREAK NOW SEEN.

With men in all lines of railroad service returning to work with every changing shift, local steam lines were yesterday accepting freight for all points subject to delay, and officials stated that the strike, which was two weeks old at midnight, was slowly, but surely, dying.

Although "outlaw" switchmen, who are now without a charter, insist that men from their ranks are not returning to work, the contention is refuted by the fact that the Southern Pacific yard was yesterday working seventeen switch crews, none of which consisted of officials. The company uses between fifty and sixty crews in a day, under normal conditions. About twenty of its old switchmen are back, having returned as new men. Many who offered their services were refused work. The same condition prevails on the Santa Fe and Salt Lake lines.

Freight brakemen on all the roads are, for the most part, declining to answer calls. They are stated to have taken exception to an ultimatum issued several days ago by Vice-President George Anderson of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, who told them if they didn't return to work by 8 a.m., Tuesday, they could not expect to be protected by the brotherhood in the matter of seniority. Yesterday a few of the trainmen reported for work, but the majority stayed away. It is asserted they intend to make Mr. Anderson "show his hand."

The local agents of the Denver & Rio Grande and the Missouri Pacific have announced that their lines will accept freight shipments from this section, subject to delay.

Four more of the indicted striking railroad men were released from the County Jail, yesterday, having furnished bond of $5000 each. They are: Oscar T. Le Fever, Santa Fe switchman; A. N. Miller and William G. Fannon, members of the strikers' committee, and George Dunkum, a Southern Pacific switchman.

I can convince even the skeptical that my anatomical method for permanently correcting constipation is a certain success. I speak from an experience of over twenty years.

Men, women and children, many of them afflicted for years, using first one thing, then another, always seeking help, only receiving but temporary relief, have adopted my method, and within ten days Nature began to reassert itself, and in 30 days they were natural and regular in this all important duty, having discarded all drugs, depending entirely upon Nature for elimination.

To you who suffer from this annoying disease-producing condition, if you will drop me a card I will send you positive, undeniable proof that you can permanently correct your trouble. My method appeals to all intelligent people—and it is that class of people who appreciate and understand the danger of artificially produced elimination. GEORGIANS IN A TRIPLE SPLIT.

Anti-Administration Vote is in Primary Majority.

Bryan Wins Place in Democratic Convention.

Wet and Dry Bugaboo Hanging Over the Democrats.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.
[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, April 22.—The joy with which the administration received the first returns from the primaries in Nebraska and Georgia as a vindication of the President, and an unqualified League of Nations covenant was dampened today by the receipt of more complete figures.

Although Atty.-Gen. Palmer won a plurality of the delegates to the Georgia State convention, which names all the Georgia delegates to the Democratic National convention, Tom Watson, running on an all anti-administration, and League of Nations platform, received a plurality of 4000 of the popular vote. With only one small county missing, the vote stood:

Watson, 51,305; Palmer, 47,000; Senator Hoke Smith, 44,644. Senator Smith was running on a platform advocating the Lodge reservations to the covenant.

Mr. Palmer stumped the State, defending the President's opposition to reservations. The people of Georgia evinced their disapproval of the League of Nations without reservations, by a majority of nearly 49,000.

If the Watson and Smith forces get together in the State convention, an anti-Administration delegation to the National convention will be the result.

BRYAN A WINNER.

In the Nebraska primary, although Senator Hitchcock, the Senate spokesman of the President, won the Presidential preference vote, William Jennings Bryan, according to latest returns, is to be one of the four delegates-at-large, together with another Bryan delegate. The prospect of Bryan sitting in the convention and disturbing the proceedings with advocacy of a prohibition plank and opposition to a plank committing the party to the League of Nations without vital reservations accentuates the disappointment of the administration in the latest returns.

Senator Hitchcock arrived in Washington today, and after receiving both congratulations and commiserations issued a call for a Democratic caucus for next Tuesday, to settle the long-pending leadership contest.

Now that the Nebraska primaries are over, and the peace treaty is back at the White House, Mr. Hitchcock has lost interest in the minority leadership of the Senate, and says he does not care a rap if Senator Underwood does beat him. This new indifference on Mr. Hitchcock's part was taken as confirmation in some quarters that the Nebraska Senator's main object in holding on to the leadership was to use the influence of that position to whack Bryan in the Nebraska primary.

Mr. Underwood is reported to have a fight for renomination on his hands down in Alabama and the programme now is to transfer the leadership to him under the doctrine of distribution of power where it will do the most good.

WET AND DRY ISSUE.

Senator Hitchcock has nothing to say about the prospect of a damp plank in the platform as a result of the Nebraska results. He explained that he favored a new Congressional definition of intoxicating liquor to lift the ban on beer and light wines, but says he has made little use of the wet issue in the primary campaign.

"I found in my campaigning that the administration is not so dead as some people think," says Senator Hitchcock.

"As a matter of fact when I mentioned the great achievements of the first five or six years of the Wilson administration, I found that the crowds responded with enthusiasm. There is a great deal of discontent and unrest, however, and most of this is expressing itself in votes for Senator Johnson. It was apparent almost from the start that he would carry the State."

JAPAN DEFENDS HERSELF AGAIN.

Claims Russians Started the Fight of April 5.

Asserts Slavs Deliberately Planned Attack on Them.

Say Their Prompt Action Saved a Torrent of Blood.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

TOKIO, April 19. (Delayed)—The Foreign Office today issued a statement which, it was announced, was intended to counteract reports sent out by the Russians in Vladivostok in an endeavor to attribute to the Japanese the instigation of the outbreaks there on April 5 and also because it says some of the foreign newspaper correspondents misrepresented the facts.

The statement confirms the dispatches previously given out by the Japanese War Office showing that, notwithstanding full agreement between the Japanese and the Russians, the Russians on the night of the fourth, fired on Japanese sentries, that the Japanese commander, before retaliating, requested the Russians to stop firing, but that the shooting was redoubled and that thereupon the Japanese replied.

According to the statement the Russian troops raided the Japanese barracks and attacked the residence of the commander of the Japanese expedition. Therefore, the Japanese decided to disarm the Russian troops in Vladivostok and also those in the maritime province, whose attitude against the Japanese was even worse than that of those in Vladivostok.

PLANNED COUP.

"It is quite evident," the statement continues, "that the Russians deliberately planned a coup and an attack upon the Japanese as soon as all the Americans and other Allied troops had left Vladivostok. Prior to the opening of the attack, the Russian vessels in the harbor cleared for action and the troops in position on the hills were supplied with arms and ammunition. The sailors on the ships the evening of April 4 wore full accouterments. The Japanese commander acted promptly and mercifully, for the best interests of all concerned.

"In the face of the organized plot for letting loose hordes of irresponsible Reds upon the city of Vladivostok is the undoubted fact that hundreds of innocenet Japanese residents would have been slaughtered, while foreign or Russian residents not sympathetic with the Red rule in Siberia must have been killed. Since then every effort has been made through the propaganda of misrepresentation to show that the Japanese acted with aggressive intent or cruelty treated women, children and wounded. Such statements are absolutely unjustifiable.

"There is reason to believe prompt action saved a holocaust of blood and damage in Vladivostok and a re-enacting of the scenes of violence to which eastern Siberia and Russia have been subject. The action of the Japanese was compelled in self-defense. It had no political significance, because the Japanese authorities do not desire any political influence or territory. It is understood that a joint meeting of Russians and Japanese authorities is now amicably discussing the points of settlement of the matter."

Whooping Cough.

In this disease it is important that the cough be kept loose and expectoration easy. This is best accomplished by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. That preparation also tends to liquify the tough mucus, making it easier to expectorate and renders the fits of coughing less frequent and less severe. It has been used in many epidemics of this disease with the best results. It contains no codeine or other narcotic.—[Advertisement.

Simple Home Method Removes Corns

Improved Treatment Does Away With Cutting, Pain and Danger.

The simplest way of removing corns without pain or danger is to paint them with the liquid known as Cactus Corn Compound. It stops the pain immediately and in a short time the corns or callouses drop off.

This method tried in thousands of cases, can be used at home by anyone. It is convenient, quick and absolutely safe. Plasters and pads are annoying and give only temporary relief. Cutting is painful and sometimes results in blood poisoning. The best way is to kill the corns with Cactus Corn Compound.

A small bottle of Cactus Corn Compound costs only a few cents at any drug store and is sufficient to remove dozens of corns. Your druggist will gladly refund your money if you are not satisfied after a fair trial of Cactus Compound.—[Advertisement.

FRENCH PREMIER MISSES AMERICA

Millerand Regrets Absence at San Remo Council.

Would be Glad of Support on Treaty Enforcement.

Teutons Excluded from Discussion of Problems.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

SAN REMO, April 22.—Alexandre Millerand, the French Premier, today received the American newspaper correspondents, of whom eleven are here, and talked freely about Peace Conference affairs.

"Our friendship with the American people," he said, "did not begin with 1914, but very long before that and before you brought us the decisive help in the war which now is such a precious recollection.

"I regret we could not have the direct active co-operation of the United States government in the preparation of the Turkish treaty here, but I am sure America will not stand apart always from European affairs.

"I regret much more that the United States does not participate in the discussion of Germany's treatment of the treaty of Versailles, which will be considered tomorrow."

CONTINUE TURK DISCUSSION.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

PARIS, April 22.—The Allied Supreme Council today continued its elaboration of the treaty with Turkey, which it is believed will be finished today, according to the San Remo correspondent of the Havas Agency.

Having in mind the reservations formulated by President Wilson in his note of last month, the correspondent says, the council decided not to allocate immediately and definitely the Smyrna wedge to Greece.

Because importation of the Mohammedan element, especially since the war, has obliged many Greeks to quit the territory, a plebiscite will be held a few years hence to determine the final disposition of the region.

With regard to the protection of minorities, the correspondent continues, the Ottoman government will be compelled to pledge itself to respect the different beliefs. Every act contrary to neutrality in this respect will be considered by co-contracting powers as a violation of the treaty and may lead to military repression. Representatives of the League of Nations will be installed in Constantinople to receive complaints.

The receipt of the German note asking permission to maintain an army of 200,000 minimum strength, has produced a lively impression on the council. In Italian and British circles, however, it did not seem to cause surprise, and even appeared to be favorably regarded.

The German appeal accords with ideas already expressed by the chief of the Italian government. The opinion expressed in French circles is that if, in view of the danger of Bolshevism, this demand is granted, France ought to receive guarantees against any attempt at revenge on the part of Germany.

GERMANY ENCLUDED.

The San Remo correspondent of the Matin says he has been informed that the propositions of Premiers Nitti and Lloyd George on the question of dealing with Germany culminated in a suggestion that Germany be invited to take part in the conference here. However, adds the correspondent, Premier Millerand ultimately convinced the Italian and British premiers that they were wrong, and it was decided to confine discussion of the German problem to the Supreme Council.

FOR DARDANELLES.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

SAN REMO, April 22.—Control of the Dardanelles will be exercised by two international commissions, according to plans of the Supreme Council announced today. One of these will regulate traffic, fix dues for the use of the straits and supervise affairs generally.

The other will be a military commission having at its disposition forces which will be located on Gallipoli Peninsula and on the other side of the straits.

The passage of these straits will be declared to be forever free to the world's shipping during either peace or war. It does not appear that the United States will be represented on the commission.

GAME COMMISSIONER REPLIES TO CHARGES.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SACRAMENTO, April 22.—M. J. Connell of Los Angeles, a member of the State Fish and Game Commission, gave to Gov. Stephens today a statement in reply to charges by Carl Westerfeld, executive officer of the commission, of mishandling of the commission's funds.

Gov. Stephens and Mr. Connell declined to comment on the statement and information regarding details of its contents was withheld.

LEO ORNSTEIN

PHILHARMONIC ORCHESTRA

(Walter Henry Rothwell, Conductor)

Tonight Leo Ornstein, famous futurist pianist, will be heard in a program that will display his remarkable impressionistic playing to exceptional advantage. He will play his own "Impressions of Chinatown," which is said by critics to be nothing less than amazing. He will also play compositions of more conventional character in his interpretation of which critics are lavish in their praise.

Ornstein's extraordinary command of technique and tone coloring, calls for a piano of the most unusual capacities, and this he has found in the exclusive use of the

The greatest master-piece in the Art Gallery of Life is Nature's "Picture of Health".

It is a marvelous portrayal of the human body at its best. One beholds in its composite detail a true symbol of strength. It presents a figure of striking appearance in its erect carriage, clear skin, glorious eyes, steady nerves and firm muscles—fairly vibrating in animation—keen, alert, fresh, and radiant, with an air of unusual confidence and a face radiant in color and illumined with a glow of hope and cheerfulness.

Could Nature have taken your fair counterpart? Suppose you study yourself in the mirror of the present and compare your looks, your feelings and your condition with the general characteristics of this picture of health. Is your body in perfect working order, all parts of which are sound, well-organized and disposed, performing their functions freely, naturally.

If you fail in any single point of comparison, you are not the picture of health. It's learning that first step that leads to means to rebuild your strength, energy and vigor—to bring your body up to a normal state of efficiency in all of its parts.

King stated that while most of his work was done in homes where the families had gone to attend funerals, he also watched the society notices, and burglarized other homes. He was unable to remember all the places, but "guessed" the number was about thirty.

In King's room the police found watches, gold chains, rings, pins, revolvers and a large amount of clothing. Although King stated that he had never disposed of any of his loot, the officers claim he pawned and sold some.

Today King will be taken about the city by Detectives Fitzgerald and Mart, who will have him point out the various places he broke into. The detectives said that all persons who were robbed by the "funeral burglar" will be notified by mail when to appear at Central Police Station to identify their property. It will take several days to separate the recovered loot and look up the articles in police records.

LOST NECKLACE FOUND IN SUDS.

Mrs. C. K. G. Billings's Diamond Collar Vanishes; Went with Wash.

Another $10,000 diamond robbery gone wrong!

Excitement was rampant at the Alexandria yesterday when it became known that a diamond collar valued at $10,000 was mysteriously missing from the apartment of C. K. G. Billings, noted financier and turfman, of Chicago and Santa Barbara.

Mr. Billings arrived in Los Angeles with his wife on Monday and returned to their Santa Barbara home the following day. Wednesday they called F. L. Andrews, assistant manager of the hotel, and told him that the jewels were missing. An advertisement was inserted in the papers offering $500 reward for the return of the gems.

Yesterday while searching the laundry at the hotel a Mexican youth found the necklace and turned it over to D. N. Childers, manager of the department. Mr. Billings then paid the reward.

TRY WATSON AS WHITE SLAVER?

County to Seek Complaints Under Mann Act.

Multibigamist Settles with Two Deluded "Wives."

Accused Much Better, Soon Fit for Rigid Quiz.

National significance was given last night to the adventures of Walter Andrew Watson, supposed superbigamist when Al Manning, superintendent of the Sheriff's office, announced that he will today request the Department of Justice to take over the investigation and will ask for complaints charging Watson with having violated the Mann Act and used the United States mails for fraudulent purposes.

Mr. Manning says developments in the case yesterday convinced him that a Mann Act complaint can probably be created with substantial grounds. He stated that Watson is so improved in health that he will probably be able to undergo rigid cross-examination within three days. "This talk about blood transfusion to save his life is all bunk," remarked Mr. Manning. "He doesn't need it. He is getting along fine."

"WIVES" GET MONEY.

Yesterday Watson, through his attorney, J. Morgan Marmaduke, turned over to two of his "wives" a good share of his property in settlement of their claims against him for fraud. Katherine Wombacher Andrew of this city received a check for $2000. She says Watson got $2500 of her money after they married. Katherine Kruse Williamson of Salem, Or., got $2200 by check, an auto which is stored in Santa Monica and twenty acres of colony land in the northern part of the State. She stated that Watson obtained $3600 from her.

A San Diego woman who declares she married Watson under the name of Huirt at Jacksonville, Fla., and was deserted after driving through to San Diego by auto, visited him yesterday at the hospital, but could not identify him and he stated he had never seen her before. Mr. Manning says the accused man recognized Katherine Wombacher Andrew and Katherine Kruse Williamson and admitted that they were his wives.

MUCH BETTER.

Taking a new lease on life and apparently abandoning his attitude of being willing to die from his self-inflicted wounds, the reputed multibigamist awoke yesterday to the charges that may be brought against him and fired back a protest and vriticism to the officials who are holding him a prisoner at the County Hospital. Shackled to his cot in Ward 110 he told his attorney he hopes to get well and disprove the charges. At the same time he made admissions that he has deeds to property, given to him by Mrs. Alice M. Ludvigson and Bertha R. Goodnick, both of whom he is said to have married in Seattle. He does not deny that he married them, nor does he admit it.

Watson's unusual statement was substantially as follows: "I am feling much better and hope shortly to be able to be up and able to clear up a lot of these things, and disprove the charges against me. I shall be able to do this as soon as I get better, which I hope will be soon. There are a lot of things I shall be able to expain.

HE'S AMUSED.

"This temporary hysteria of the press and the officials is really amusing. I suppose that every woman in the United States who has lost a husband in the past few years will blame me for it. I still feel weak, but am anxious to get well."

Regarding the question of prosecuting Watson here, there was some doubt yesterday, but last night Dist.-Atty. Woolwine said that it is legally possible to bring Watson before a court in this State for bigamy. It was held by some attorneys that Watson could not be prosecuted for bigamy as it would be next to impossible to prove his first marriage, which ordinarily is necessary. However, it was pointed out by Mr. Woolwine that the prosecution could prove that Watson married Mrs. Kathryn Wombacher and Mrs. Elizabeth Williamson, both of whom are now in this city. Then, to disprove that the first of these two marriages was illegal, the burden would fall upon Watson's attorney to prove that he had a legal marriage previous to either of them. By doing this, it was said, he would prove the State's case and show both of these marriages illegal.

WOMAN IDENTIFIED.

Another important development in the investigation is the identification of Mrs. Maud E. Goldensmith of Wallace, Idaho, as one of Watson's "wives."

A telegram was received yesterday from the police at Shelburne Falls, Mass., saying that the Newton Harvey of that city was not the Watson now in the County Hospital. It was said that Newton Harvey is now in Toronto, Can., and will return to his home shortly.

There was a rumor yesterday that Watson has a brother either in Oakland or Berkeley. The officers are inquiring.

HARVEY ELIMINATED?

A telegram received yesterday at the Sheriff's office apparently eliminates Newton Harvey of Shelburne Falls from the case. The Chief of Police of the Massachusetts town wired that Newton Harvey is in business in New England and is about to return from a trip to Toronto.

Alma Estelle Snyder of Spokane, who was to have married Watson under the name of H. L. Gordon this week, yesterday turned over to the police of that city a number of characteristic love letters she received from Watson here, in Long Beach and Santa Monica, the last one written the day before he was arrested in this city.

ATTACK ON DRUG CLINIC IS FALSE.

"Examiner's" Assault on City Institution Disproven.

Chemist Shows No Codein in Narcotics Employed.

Many Cures; Third of Addicts Have Cut Down Amount.

Peddlers of narcotic drugs, who until recently cleared as high as $500 a day by preying on drug addicts, but who were virtually driven out of business by the opening, at the request of the Federal authorities, of the municipal clinic for drug addicts, yesterday were made happy by the publication in the Los Angeles Examiner of an article referring to the clinic as "an astounding failure" and plainly intimating that it should be closed.

But all day, men and women who have been greatly helped by the city clinic and their relatives beleged the health department, begging that the clinic should not be closed. Mothers whose sons are beginning to get a grip on themselves and wives whose husbands have been able to hold jobs since the clinic opened, but before were simply the tools of the drug peddlers, made the most pitiful pleas.

CHARGES; FACTS.

Following are the assertions in the Examiner, and the facts as ascertained by The Times, the quoted parts being from the Examiner:

"The municipal drug clinic is a failure." The State Board of Pharmacy considers it the most successful effort in ten years to control an almost uncontrollable problem.

"Anybody can get morphine—or codein, rather." Only addicts who have submitted to a physical examination can get morphine, nobody can get codein.

"The peddlers are still selling their dope." State Pharmacy Inspector Lackenbach says before the clinic opened three or four peddlers a day were arrested; since it has opened but one arrest has been made.

"No cures have been effected, nor are any cases even on the road to a cure." Seven addicts have quit the drug altogether, due to the clinic. Eighty-six have reduced their daily doses from 10 to 60 per cent., all are being encouraged to reduce. The clinic has only been in operation since March 8.

"The addicts are getting more than ever, for they are buying from both the drug clinic and the peddlers." The evidences of all informed on the subject is to the contrary.

"The clinic has become a hangout for all the pickpockets in the city." The clinic is not a hangout for anyone, those in charge say. Most of the addicts hurry away as soon as they get the drug.

Representatives of the State Board of Pharmacy, who are most concerned in the handling of the drug situation here, said last night that "it would be a crime to close the city clinic before it has been given a fair chance," that "it is the most practical and logical effort toward handling the problem made here in the last ten years," and that though the clinic has been in operation only a few weeks they have already had numerous proofs that it is doing great good.

NO CODEIN.

The most startling of the many misstatements in the Examiner's attack on the clinic is the assertion that the drug dispensed at the city clinic is not morphine but codein. "The Examiner reported no difficulty in securing the deadly powder," the headline asserted. No powder of any kind has ever been given out at the clinic, and no codein, in any form. An analysis of another sample of the same lot taken by the Examiner reporter, made in the laboratory of Wrana, King & Co., 822 East Third street, yesterday showed that the bottles contained a solution of morphine sulphate, and that no codein was present.

The city buys the morphine in fifty-ounce unopened cans, received direct from the manufacturing chemists. The contents of several cans are dissolved together to make up one "lot" of the morphine in solution, which is then put up in three-grain bottles. Therefore it would have been impossible for one bottle to contain codein and another no trace of codein. J. H. Wright, Ph.G., who made the analysis for Wrana, King & Co., explained that it would be very easy, handling the drug in a certain manner, to make the mistake of believing there was codein in it, but declared emphatically that a thorough analysis failed to show a trace of it.

FROM DR. POWERS.

"All we ask for the clinic is a fair chance," Health Commissioner Powers said last night. "The idea was not ours, originally. It came from Commissioner of Internal Revenue Roper, in Washington, D. C. His representative here, Internal Revenue Collector Carter, suggested it to us, and we were glad to co-operate with the government in dealing with what is fast becoming a national problem."

"The clinic opened March 8. In those few weeks 342 addicts have enrolled, of whom nearly 300 have become 'regulars.' Of those, eighty-six have reduced their daily drug allowance from 10 to 60 per cent. and several have entirely quit the use of drugs."

"Our clinic is open, we have nothing to hide and there was no need for the reporter to deceive me," said Dr. John W. Nevius, head of the clinic. "There is no way of detecting an addict without depriving him of the drug for a certain time. The young man gave a complete history of how he became an addict, showed scars on his body he said were made by abscesses resulting from the use of a hypodermic needle and there was nothing about him to indicate that he was not an addict. As morphine in solution is virtually unsalable, there is little in our clinic to tempt persons who are not addicts, so we Plaintiff in Spicy Divorce Suit.

Mrs. Perry Whiting.

NO SAINT HAS ROMAN NOSE.

The Whiting divorce suit, brought by Mrs. Lillie L. Whiting against Perry Whiting, wealthy business man, is being tried in Judge Crail's court before a crowded house. A score of witnesses have been summoned and are sitting through the trial, which will be resumed today.

Camouflaging his feelings with honeyed sweetness and shocking her sensibilities by swearing are charges made by Mrs. Whiting against her husband. Mr. Whiting points to his Roman nose in denial of his wife's allegations of camouflage and honeyed sweetness.

Early in her evidence she connected a Miss Chamberlain with the name of her husband, detailing dramatically a sleuthing trip, the end of which was, she said, discovering her husband and Miss Chamberlain seated in a darkened automobile in a loving embrace.

"I could not say that they were kissing when we flashed a light on them, but he had his arms around her and both had their hats off," she said.

The lace curtain incident was dwelt on. Mrs. Whiting put some lace curtains over iron bars to soften the prison-like effect, she said. Mr. Whiting told her he had been fighting for twenty-five years against lace curtains, and he said he would not stand it any longer. She said he took his hat and left.

Mr. Whiting's alleged profanity was another straw on the load of mental suffering she claimed she endured. "By gad," apparently was his favorite expression. She is represented by Attorney George P. Adams, who introduced pictures showing where Mr. Whiting and Miss Chamberlain are alleged to have halted in the dark and swapped hugs.

To show that Mrs. Whiting was immune to profanity, Attorney R. L. Horton, counsel for Mr. Whiting, stated that she knew the ways of men, "and that such words as 'by gad' did not shock her. She knew when she married Mr. Whiting that he men are saint-like. She should have known that his Roman nose indicated that her husband was not saintly or angelic."

Mrs. Whiting insisted that before they were married, he never swore at her. She said he was just wonderful.

"After we were married, he thought things ought to be different. I tried to be the same, though," she exclaimed.

"He was a past master at camouflaging his real feelings with honeyed sweetness," she replied to a question by Attorney Horton.

ONE KILLED; FIVE MAY DIE.

Seven Traffic Accidents Take Heavy Toll; Many Suffer as Train and Car Crash.

One man is dead, five persons are at the point of death and four others were painfully hurt as the result of seven accidents in different parts of the city yesterday afternoon and evening.

J. W. Richards, a driver for the Santa Monica Laundry Company, received injuries from which he later died, when his delivery truck was struck by Pacific Electric car No. 564, inbound, of the Sherman line, at Napier street and Santa Monica boulevard. He was taken to the Receiving Hospital, where he died a few hours later from internal injuries. His home was at 1538 Fourth street, Santa Monica.

Cecil H. Foltz, a salesman for the Pacific Motorcycle Supply Company, 21 years of age, was perhaps fatally injured when his motorcycle collided with an automobile driven by W. L. Kent of 1709 Rollins street, South Pasadena, at Washington and Norwood streets. Patrolmen Magness and Farrant took the young salesman to the Receiving Hospital, where Police Surgeon Goodrich stated the patient probably had both basal and frontal fractures of the skull. Little hope was held out for his recovery.

The accident occurred when Mr. Foltz attempted to pass Mr. Kent's car as it was turning into Norwood street from Washington, according to the police. The cyclist apparently was unable to stop before he collided with the automobile, and overturned his motorcycle. He is married and resides at 1040 West Washington street.

TRUCK HITS CHILD.

Johnnie Matchniff, 8 years old, 1323 Utah street, received injuries that may cause his death when he was struck by a motor truck, owned and driven by E. Janofsky of 1537 East Twenty-first street, on the East Fourth-street bridge. He was taken to the Receiving Hospital, where it was learned that he had a depressed basal fracture of the skull. Later he was removed to the Crocker-Street Hospital.

Charles B. Wright, a colored janitor at the St. Catherine's Hospital at Santa Monica, is expected to die as the result of injuries received when he was knocked down in front of 1321 East Twelfth street, by an automobile driven by George Riley of 1120 South Grand avenue. At the Receiving Hospital it was found that Mr. Wright had a possible fracture of the skull in addition to fractures of both legs. Late last night he was taken in an ambulance to the hospital in the beach city.

CRUSHED BY CARS.

Another perhaps fatal accident, due to carelessness, the police asserted, was recorded when George Pippin, a young mechanic for the Los Angeles Railway Company, was crushed between two cars in the barn at Central avenue and East Seventh street. He was rushed to the Crocker-Street Hospital. He has severe internal injuries, the extent of which is not yet known.

The accident occurred when Mr. Pippin placed the trolley of car No. 37 of the West Sixth-street line on the wire. The controller had been left on the reverse point, and the car backed against another, crushing the mechanic between the two.

Mr. Pippin is about 28 years of age, his fellow-workmen said. His address could not be learned.

Arthur Leland of San Dimas was probably fatally injured late yesterday afternoon on Cadillac street when he attempted to ride a motorcycle across the Pacific Electric tracks in front of a street car.

The youth was thrown from his machine by the fender of the street car. He suffered internal injuries and both his legs were crushed. He was taken to the Pomona Valley Hospital.

TRAIN, TROLLEY CRASH.

Mistaken signals, according to the police, yesterday resulted in the collision of a street car and a Southern Pacific train at Violet and Mateo streets in which four persons were severely hurt and a score badly bruised and shocked. The more seriously injured were treated at the Receiving Hospital. They are:

Mrs. Charles Remine, 27, of 232½ Malabar street, Huntington Park. Mrs. Remine is about to become a mother and her condition is serious.

Mrs. John D. Paeschke, 45 years old of 641 East Forty-third street, severe shock, bruises and other injuries.

Rudolph Cwiky, 31 years of age, 641 East Forty-third street, bruises, severe shock and lacerations.

George Talmadge of 270 Cottage street, Huntington Park, severe shock and bruises.

Motorman J. W. Hill in charge of the street car and members of the train crew were questioned by the police leading to the belief that signals received by both the street car man and the train crew were mistaken.

The windows and the front of the street car were damaged.

HOOVER AGAINST JAP SETTLERS.

Dr. Wilbur Says He Strongly Opposes Influx.

Precinct Work Wins Voters, Support Rolling Up.

Give New Proof of Johnson Suffrage Hypocrisy.

Herbert Hoover's stand on the Japanese question in California was explained by Ray Lyman Wilbur, president of Stanford University, in a telegram yesterday to Edward D. Lyman, head of the Hoover Republican Club in Southern California. This telegram also fixed Mr. Hoover's residence as belonging permanently to California. It follows:

"During the last ten years Hoover's residence has been at Stanford University, California. He returned from foreign work and was elected a trustee of Stanford in 1912 because of his permanent residence here. He is publicly on record as strongly opposed to Japanese immigration and has told me personally he considers it vital in California.

"He has no money interests outside the United States. At the outbreak of the war he had reached the zenith of his earning capacity, and would now be a millionaire had he not cut off a professional income of about $75,000 a year to do free work during the whole war period for Belgium, France, this country and Central Europe."

GAINS IN NORTH.

Hoover is rapidly gaining ground in Oakland and through Alameda county, according to a telegram received yesterday at the Hoover Republican Club, 712 South Spring street, by Phil A. Stanton from Peter J. Crosby, a prominent Oakland attorney.

"Hoover steadily gaining ground here," wired Mr. Crosby. "While we began our campaign late we are more and more enthused by the interest and support that is rolling up in Oakland and the Bay cities. Straw votes taken in various parts of Alameda county, and among all sorts of people, show Hoover a big favorite over Johnson, and this in a Johnson stronghold, where but a little while ago the vote was 90 per cent. for Johnson.

"A meeting of business men in Oakland last night gave Hoover 158 and Johnson 33. I am satisfied that we will give the Johnson machine the surprise of its life in Oakland. We are very much encouraged by the reports from Southern California."

Mr. Lyman, commenting on the telegram, declared it merely reflects the spirit which now comes in the reports of the Hoover campaign workers in all parts of California. The district and precinct organization in Los Angeles and through the county, Mr. Lyman added, is now beginning to get results from the work of the last few days. Precinct workers are getting in touch with the voters through direct canvass, and their reports are beginning to indicate a growing sentiment against Johnson, largely on the grounds of his

RICH MAN MISSING, BIG REWARD OFFERED.

AUGUST BUCHFINK, WEALTHY RETIRED RANCHER, MYSTERIOUSLY LOST.

One thousand dollars reward has been offered by Mrs. August Buchfink, of 2156 West Twenty-ninth street, for information concerning her husband, August Buchfink, a wealthy retired rancher, 62 years of age, who has been missing since Monday evening, and who, the people fear, has met with foul play. Nick Harris detectives are racing the police in efforts to locate him.

Mr. Buchfink left his home on Monday to help in free work being done on a garage belonging to the church of Rev. W. N. Hohberger at 2708 Western avenue. When he quit at 7 p.m., he told his associates that he was going home. He has not been heard from since. He had no money with him. He cannot read nor write, according to the report.

He is described as being five feet four inches in height and weighing about 145 pounds. He has thin gray hair and a mustache, when last seen he was wearing a brown suit, a soft brown flannel shirt, a black derby hat and black lace shoes. Anyone seeing this man is requested to notify the police as his wife and family are distressed over his absence.

FOR ARGYLE STREET.

Residents on Argyle street, who object to the closing of that thoroughfare in Hollywood, will be heard by the City Council at 1:30 p.m. Monday.

The People and Their Daily Troubles

Through the Widow's Lorgnette

By Helen Rowland.

It's the Young and Foolish Season—Be as Foolish as You Can!

"Isn't it fascinating—to be young and foolish?"

The Widow hurried out of the glittering shop, her eyes dancing like Christmas stars, cheeks like holly berries, and both arms hugging a dozen variegated parcels. The Bachelor followed her, a veritable Santa Claus laden with holiday boxes.

"There!" she exclaimed, flinging her plunder helter-skelter into the tonneau of the car, "Take me straight home! I'm as tired as a charlady on Saturday night!" and she flopped back among the cushions with a delicious little sigh.

"It serves you right!" scolded the Bachelor, leaning over to tuck the rugs around her ridiculous, silk-clad ankles, "You're old enough to know better than to turn a holiday into hard labor, and a sacrament into a sacrifice."

"I'm not!" declared the Widow with prompt defiance, "I'm younger than youth, itself! I was positively the youngest thing in the whole toy department!"

"What!"

"The children are so blase, nowadays," she sighed, "The littlest child there was bored by anything less than a moving-picture machine or a 500 airplane, while I was perfectly delighted to chat with Santa Claus, and to play with an open-and-shut-eye hawpie dolly. It's you, who are getting wrinkles on the soul, and bald on top of your illusions, my dear boy!"

The Batchelor regarded her with hurt surprise.

"I thought," he remarked chillily, "that it was you who so bitterly denounced all this rush and crush and hub-dub at Christmas time—all this shopping, and extravagance, and stuffing, and dissipating and 'temporary insanity.' I thought it was you who so passionately defended the 'spree' only a few seasons ago—and entertained me for buringing you a wrist watch instead of a vacuum cleaner."

"Oh that!" the Widow dismissed the accusation with a shrug and a wave of her muff, "That was before the war! The world was getting old and gray and cynical. It was a bachelors' world. But this—this is a brand new world, a rejuvenated world, a gay young world—and nobody with a mental bald spot has any place in it. This is a playboy's world—and Christmas is the time for everybody to learn to play, again!".

"Aha!" cried the Bachelor blithely, as he turned the car up the avenue. "Back to the toys and toys and kissing games! Let's cultivate the gentle art of being foolish! Well, what shall we do? Drive to a tea room and play tit-tat-toe, on the tablecloth?"

"No," laughed the Widow, "We'll go straight home, and look at all the junk and things I've bought. That will be foolish enough, for one day. I'm afraid I've been awfully reckless. Do you think Aunt Prunella will like a pink chiffon boudoir cap and a silver vanity case?"

"What!" the Bachelor stared at her for a full half minute, then exploded into violent laughter, "Your Aunt Prunella—in a pink chiffon boudior cap! Ye gods!"

"She can use the vanity case for her pepsin tablets, anyway," concluded the Widow cheerfully, "And I've bought some English sporting prints and a Russian humidor for dear old Uncle Abner, the anti-tobacco crusader, and a gold filigree fan for mother, and some embroidered blue silk pajamas for the cook, and—"

"Stop, stop!" commanded the Bachelor, "If you value my life—don't say another word! Have you taken a foolish powder?"

The Widow nodded tranquilly.

"Yes," she admitted, "It's the young and foolish season—and I'm determined to make everybody around me feel as young and foolish as possible. It is an art, you know—being foolish. I suppose I ought to have gotten useful presents, but—"

"Oh, yes of course, you 'ought!'" put in the Bachelor. "That's why you didn't—being a woman. But, this year of all years!"

"This year of all years, everybody needs to be shaken out of the shoosmal!" declared the Widow stoutly. "This year of all years, everybody needs a tonic for the jaded spirits, and a stimulant for the tired heart. A ton of coal might have done Aunt Prunella more material good than a pink boudoir cap, but think of the spiritual exhilaration she'll get out of looking pretty and riotously young! A pair of mittens might have been more appropriate for the washerwoman's little boy than a pair of skates, but he wouldn't admit it. A pair of shoes might have been more useful to the cook, than embroidered blue silk pajamas, but think of her soul!"

"Her soul!" the Bachelor gasped. "Oh, yes, of course—her soul!"

"And it's people's souls we want to feed, at Christmas time," resumed the Widow, ignoring the flippancy. "It's the child in every human being, that we want to bring gifts to—as the wise men brought gifts to the Child, of old!" and she grazed mystically out of the window, through the purple and gold twilight. "Everybody has the soul of a child, somewhere in him," she continued, after a little pause, "even you, Mr. Methuselah—if you'll only try to find it!"

"Hm! I don't have to try!" the Bachelor rytorted, "I know it, every time I let you drag me out Christmas shopping, and lure me into toy stores, and inveigle me into helping you trim Christmas trees! And me," he added impressively, "almost 33 years old!"

"My!" exclaimed the Widow opening her violet eyes and regarding him with mock admiration. "What a big boy it's getting to be! But it will come in and help me unwrap parcels, won't it?" she cooed, as the car drew up before her door.

"It will," agreed the Bachelor, with assumed indifference, gathering up his burdens and following her docilely.

"Why—why, what in the world is this " cried the Widow, gingerly picking up a huge, bulky parcel, as the Bachelor flung the last of his load on the rug before the fire, "I didn't order an—an animal!" and she drew forth a spotted horse and gaily-painted wagon from its wrappings.

"That?" the Bachelor tried to look innocent, "Oh, that is just a little thing, I bought, all by my loney-loney—when you weren't looking. See! If you wind it up, it goes!" and he knelt incontinently down on the rug, and began tinkering with the toy.

"And here's an airplane!" exclaimed the Widow, in blank astonishment, "and a train of cars, and—where did you get all this trash, Mr. Cutting?"

"Trash!" repeated the Bachelor in an injured tone. "That isn't trash. Its a train of cars, for—for a little boy!"

"For whose—for what little boy?" stammered the Widow.

"Oh, for a nice little boy—for your washerwoman's little boy—for any little boy, who will let me wind it up and show him how to play with it," explained the Bachelor lamely.

"Bobby!" The Widow's eyes grew misty, and she choked with something between a sob and a laugh. "Oh, Bobby! You beautiful heart of a Christmas child!" And she leaned over, and dropped an airy kiss on top of the Bachelor's curly brown head, then sank down on the rug beside him and began to set up the train of cars.

LETTERS TO "THE TIMES."

Landlord Talks.

LOS ANGELES, April 20.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Having noticed the unanimity with which you lambast the landlords, we desire to have a few words to say. Is not your propaganda unjust and discriminating?

Is not your position taken for two reasons? First, to curry favor with tenants, who are much more numerous? Second, to make a pretense of lambasting profiteers as a gallery play to smoke-screen the real issue, the real profiteers of the nation, the packer, oil, coal, land, transportation and manufacturing trusts and money kings, to whom, should you not devote daily columns of expose and denunciation? Are you doing it?

Why pick on your neighbors, when the woods are full of rampant food and clothing profiteers? Why pick on the small fry while the exploiters of the necessities of life have their hands in everybody's pocket?

Who takes the hard earnings of a lifetime to build up a city and provide housing for the people? The landlord. Who pays the taxes, expenses, salaries and keeps up the town? The landlord [illegible] seased, soaked and drained by the public officials? The landlord. Not but what he should bear a fair share of civic burdens, but why not give him fair credit?

Why all this rabid howl of the tenant, does he expect the landlord alone of all the people to be a philanthropist and fail to keep up with the procession? You and they well know that every dollar the landlord now gets is worth only about 40 cents. What does he or you expect the landlord to pay the H.C.L. with and get a little interest on his investment over wear and waste?

Has not the tenant now for years back-ridden the back of the landlord even as did the little old man of Sinbad? Told him where to head in, paid him what rent he pleased or left his place vacant and demanded the earth with a fence around it?

Now that the shoe is on the other foot, now that it is the other bull that is gored, he emits a howl that is heard to the four corners of the earth, and ye editor pats him on the back and says, "Poor boy, we will publish the landlord hog, we will have the law on him, yes, we will set Uncle Sam on him," forgetting that Uncle would be too busy for anything if he were doing half his duty in settling the real profiteers, the trusts and money changers.

Why not also make laws against the potato kings, leather kings and drygoods hogs, who leave nothing for either tenants or landlord.

Come, be on the square, and do not deal out class publicity. Where one tenant has gone bankrupt paying rent there has been a hundred unlucky landlords gone to the bow-wows.

Too high rent is bad, and so are too high all other things that all the people are putting up with, but why howl, will not Morgans and Rockefellers get it all anyway? What difference what channel it flows through?

Give all your patrons a square deal.

A SPECTATOR.

Old Zack.

LOS ANGELES, April 15.—[To the Editor of The Times:] When Gen. Taylor was nominated for President by the Whig party in 1848 Horace Greeley stated in the Tribune that it was a nomination not fit to be made. Afterwards, when dining together, Taylor reminded Greeley of what he had said in his paper, and Greeley replied in all candor that that was what he thought at the time. "Well," retorted the general, "that was always my opinion, but the people thought otherwise and I had to stand it."

It was Gen. Taylor who said that the Presidency was an office that should not be sought or declined, and that is the opinion of all good American citizens. It will be a sad day when a man can make himself President. The people and not the man himself should make the choice.

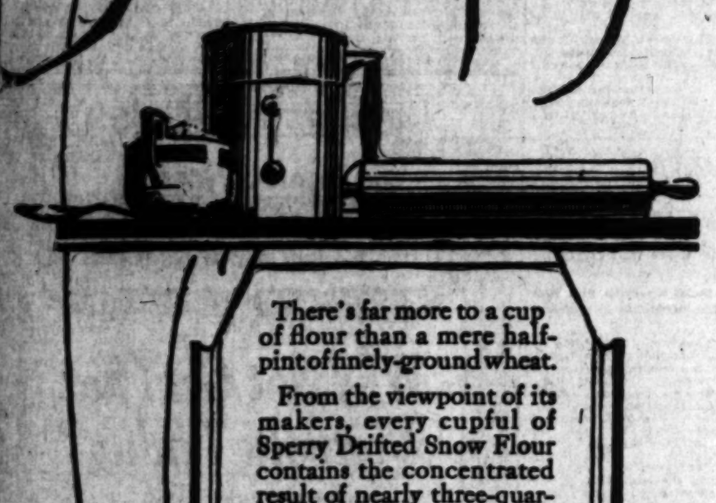
Just what is in A Cup of Flour



There's far more to a cup of flour than a mere half-pint of finely-ground wheat.

From the viewpoint of its makers, every cupful of Sperry Drifted Snow Flour contains the concentrated result of nearly three-quarters of a century of realized ideals in milling.

From the standpoint of the housewife, every cupful of Sperry Drifted Snow Flour contains the certainty of success in every baking—and the confident knowledge that, sack after sack, it's always the same.

QUESTIONS ANSWERED

Question. Is jade ever found in large pieces?

Answer. The largest piece of jade known, is a block of rock which is seven feet long, four feet wide, and weighs three tons. It came from South Island, New Zealand and forms the head for the statue of a Maori chieftain, which is on exhibition in the Museum of Natural History in New York City.

Q. In Auction Bridge, when revoking, ... revoking side scores ... O. O.

A. At present, this is not possible. There has been some discussion that may lead to a change in the rules, but as they stand, the penalty precludes this. If the declarant revoke, that side scores merely the honors held by the two hands, and the opponents add 100 points to their honor score for each revoke. If either of the adversaries revoke, the declarant's side add 100 points to the score of his side in the honor column, if he takes three tricks from the adversaries and add them to his own for the revoke. Additional revokes in the same hand must be scored above the line, 100 points for each.

Q. Are all coal miners entitled to the 27 per cent. increase granted upon by the President's coal commission?

A. This arbitration recommended a scale for the new contract between the operators and the United Mine Workers of America, but the non-union miners in the bituminous industry, are entitled to this increase. Non-union miners generally are benefited by this established scale, but there is nothing to prevent operators paying non-union miners either more or less than this scale. It would be a matter of individual contract.

Q. Who said "these are the times that try men's souls"?

M. J.

A. This expression was used by Tom Paine, and appeared in the first of a series of pamphlets which he wrote and published under the caption, "The Crisis."

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Dudley are to preside at a dinner and dancing party at the California Club this evening and will have eighteen guests.

For Mrs. Stephens.

Mrs. George Arthur Stephens of Chicago is the motif for a luncheon that Mrs. Benjamin Franklin Perkins is to give next Wednesday at the California Club. Later they will go to the matinee to see Guy Bates Post.

Mrs. Lippincott.

Mrs. Charles Howard Lippincott was yesterday hostess at a luncheon at the Los Angeles Country Club, arranged for Mrs. Ada Stephens of Moline, Ill. A basket filled with multi-colored spring blooms centered the table. Mrs. Stephens came here for the marriage of her niece, Miss Mary Sephens Lippincott, and Mr. Reginald C. Chambers, Jr.

Joint Hostesses.

Mrs. E. K. Foster and Miss M. Mackalip, with members of the Occidental Women's Club, are to give a garden party at the Foster home tomorrow afternoon in honor of the senior girls of Occidental College. Mrs. Elizabeth Cloud Miller will read; and there will be a musical programme. They will be assisted by Misses Katherine Stone, Nell Hagan, Eva Atkinson, Louise Warren, Mary Annin and Eugenia Ong. It is expected to bring about a large reunion of Occidental women.

By Mrs. Stroud.

One of the enjoyable events of the week was the auction bridge tea given yesterday by Mrs. H. E Stroud of Cahuenga avenue, Hollywood, in honor of Miss Lucia Ellen Halstead of Ocean Park, whose engagement to Mrs. Stroud's son, William Harold Stroud, has been announced. Pink and white flowers adorned the house and tea table.

By Mrs. Herron.

Mrs. Vernon Campbell Herron is presiding over a handsomely-appointed luncheon today in honor of Mrs. Harry C. Edwards of Salt Lake, who has come here to reside. The decorations are elaborate and are in pink tulips, roses and all other spring blossoms. There are places for 200 guests.

By Mr. and Mrs. Bunnell.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. D. Bunnell are to be hosts at a dinner and dancing party tomorrow evening out at the Los Angeles Country Club. There are to be eighteen guests, all members of a little card club.

Mrs. White's Tea.

Mrs. Cecelia White, who recently returned from France, where she went to do Y.W. work, is to entertain a company of twenty-four at a tea at her Harvard boulevard home next Tuesday in honor of Mrs. William Sherer of Gainesville, Wis., who is visiting her. Mrs. White received a cable yesterday from the French government asking her to return to France and to take charge of a student hostelry in Paris. During her stay there she was made a citizen of Bourges, by the Mayor. At the tea Mrs. White has asked her guests to bring photographs of themselves taken when they were girls 10 and 12 years old and there will be a guessing contest.

Personals.

Mr. and Mrs. Rufus H. Herron who have been living in Santa Barbara for some time, have returned to Los Angeles and have taken apartments at the Palms on West Adams street.

DECREE DENIED.

"When he left me, he said he was going to find a younger woman," Mrs. Leota Y. Collier, 61, testified in her divorce suit against George P. Collier, 63 years old, before Judge Taft yesterday. She charged desertion, and was denied a decree on the ground that the legal time had not elapsed in which to file a suit.

REWARDS OF GENIUS.

The composer of "Dardanella," who sold his rights to the song for $100, is now trying to get some of the $200,000 or so that might have been his on a royalty basis. He says he wants at least a part of what is coming to him. If he got what some folks thought coming to him he would have to wear stripes while collecting it.

THE WORK HABIT.

There were a great many more men at work during March, 1920, than in the same month a year ago. Possibly you hadn't noticed it, but the fact remains. That should be a sign that the country is growing steadier, but you never can tell. A couple of million down-trodden coupon-clippers may throw down their scissors and quit before the whistle blows tonight.

A DRY AMBASSADOR.

The British Embassy at Washington will be run on a bone-dry basis under the new British Ambassador, it is announced. This is another blow to official Washington. Invitations to social doings at the embassy were desired because the punch could be expected to have a kick like a Clydesdale colt, but even this grace seems now to be denied. Have to wait until the German Embassy reopens. There will be nothing dry about that.

BEACH BEHAVIOR.

A wave of modesty has rolled over the beach at Atlantic City. Under a new regulation the one-piece bathing suit is barred. Likewise no maid or matron over 16 may expose her bare knees to the gaze of a careless public or the rays of a beaming sun. Bathing costumes must be knee-length or better. Most of the visitors do not go into the water, anyhow, and it is no hardship for a dame to wear a cuff below her knee. It wouldn't interfere with her swimming, anyhow. So the highly-exposed back and legs are to be no more on view. Those who would see these wondrous and pleasing sights will have to wait for the dinner hour at the hotel. The beach is to be discreet and proper. They are going to make it safe for the Democrats as well as the Republicans. What does Venice purpose to do in the face of an example of this character? Raise the limit or cut it off.

ONLY WAY.

The Supreme Council has decided that the big stick must be applied to the Turks. It's the only way to make them behave. In the days of his supremacy in Southern Europe the Turk was known as "The Terrible;" now, in the period of his defeat, he is trying to live up to his old-time title. The Sultan, under Allied observation at Constantinople, has been brought to heel; but Mustapha Kemal, leader of the Nationalist party, is raising Cain in Cilicia and has the underground assistance of many Turks who pretend that they are willing to yield to the Allies. He's the storm center. When he is subdued the Turks will see that they must accept the inevitable. Mustapha Kemal seems to believe that he has been chosen as the successor of Abdul the Damned, who for so long was a thorn in the side of Europe. By so doing he is blocking the way to world peace and must be removed. With the assistance on the outside of the fugitive, Enver Pasha, author of Turkey's ruin, he is craftily working to arouse against Great Britain the Mohammedans in India and Egypt and to bring the Arabs into conflict with France. By that means he hopes to keep the two chief Allies busy elsewhere. But the Supreme Council easily sees through his schemes. It looks indeed as if the end is in sight for Mustapha Kemal. He will soon be saying, in the language of his former friends, "Ach Himmel!"

TESTIMONY FOR HOOVER.

No wonder the Hoover Republican Club of Los Angeles has decided to use G. Harold Powell's "Ten Reasons" as campaign literature. It is an admirable document of a totally different kind to the usual run of electoral persuaders. Moreover, it comes from a man who had ample opportunity during the war to study Hoover and to gain an insight into his methods. Mr. Powell is the general manager of one of the world's greatest co-operative fruit associations. During the war he was lent to the government and served under Mr. Hoover. He has come to the conclusion that the greatest contribution of the war to the finest ideals of America is Herbert Hoover. Thousands of others who closely watched the work of the Food Administrator reached the same opinion, but few of them have the ability possessed by Mr. Powell to set forth their reasons. The ten points of the Fruit Growers' Exchange manager powerfully describe the constructive, patriotic service which Hoover rendered during the world's greatest crisis. But, as Mr. Powell so well shows, the greatest characteristic of Hoover is his intense American patriotism. It is far above that of men who have sought to traduce him because the nature of his business called him to many foreign lands. The very fact that he has a large first-hand acquaintance with affairs in other great countries adds to his usefulness. The United States is a world power—the world power in fact—and it is highly desirable to have as its President a man who has traveled all over the globe and has proved already that he can conduct delicate and trying negotiations with other governments.

SLOWING DOWN—A WARNING.

Brakes are a safety device to be used when danger threatens. They are by no means a last resort. In fact, they are the first thing used in an effort to avert disaster. The ordinary brake applied with a soft pedal is intended to reduce the speed of the car. Every autoist is familiar with it. If that is not enough, recourse is had to the emergency brake which usually brings the vehicle up standing. There are three ways of slowing down. One is by application of the ordinary brake; another is the sharp use of the emergency, and the third is shutting off the power altogether and coming to a full stop through loss of momentum.

Business just now is slowing down by means of a gentle pressure exerted upon the every-day brake of commerce. Business men are not insensible to the danger which rides with the reckless speed at which we have been traveling. If it is found that the car has gained too great a momentum to be brought within the speed limits the emergency brake will be applied. We might as well face the facts. They are known to every investment banker, to every merchant and to every employer of labor, and the public is rapidly learning through the diminished speed.

The Times does not believe that gumshoe methods are the best. Everywhere there are whisperings of impending smithereens. Someone has heard through someone else who has a cousin who knows the janitor of a big bank that money is tight and that a panic is coming. There is no panic coming except such as is manufactured by the panic-stricken. We are not facing a panic but we are facing the necessity of slowing down.

IT ISN'T AS EASY TO BORROW MONEY as it was six months ago. Lenders are cautious; they have again become strangely curious as to what the funds are to be used for and how much less the borrower could get along with in relation to the amount he seeks to borrow. That isn't panic. It's merely a slowing down to such a speed that the scenery is more than a panoramic blur.

Merchants are no longer sending frantic orders to the wholesale centers to send what is in stock at top speed regardless of all other considerations. Buyers are now carefully inspecting the offerings; they are analyzing the prices and then, most likely, they don't buy at all, or at least in diminished volume. That isn't panic. It's common sense and attention to the road signs which warn of dangerous crossings just beyond.

Even building, which is needed more than anything else, is coming under this slowing-down process. The price of materials is simply outrageous, and while at present rentals it is possible to figure out a liberal investment return, the prudent man is looking ahead. He has heard the warning horn and has applied the brake.

The man or the woman who invests money in speculative stocks is taking a tumble. The stock market is in the dumps. There isn't any panic. The public has applied the brake, and the bulls and bears are taking time to sniff each other over and to consider what it is that makes the market tick.

A few years ago a newspaper which dared to say that a slowing down of business might be a good thing for all concerned would have been considered slightly absent about the skyline; yet that is exactly what is to save the present situation. By slowing down, but keeping the engine in gear, the momentum will not be lost and it will be possible to pick up again as soon as the bad spot in the road has been safely passed.

Retail prices continue to mount. There is no appreciable increase in production. A $35 dress costs nearly $100. A buyer pays $12 for precisely the same shoe last, but made from inferior leather, for which he paid $3.50 a few years ago. The car is running away. If the brakes are not applied there will be a smash-up at the bottom of the hill and then, perhaps, a real panic.

And so, far-seeing business men in Los Angeles and everywhere are using the only possible remedy, and if the public will do its share we shall get over the emergency in fine shape and put ourselves in a normal way to make a normal living, and keep it up. Here is a prescription The Times offers. It comes in allopathic form and it's bitter, but efficacious:

If production will not come up to demand, bring demand back to production. The cart before the horse? Not a bit of it. A dilemma may have two horns, but a cat has only one tail. The regular practitioners have failed. Dr. Palmer pleaded for time to permit his medicine to work and the high cost of living to fall, but his dope was wrong. Dr. Wilson has evolved many beautiful theories, but not a single practical working fact.

In the face of the highest wages ever paid labor has been dissatisfied, discontented, surly and domineering. In many instances it has been proven that big pay was not the desideratum, for men have refused to work or to give honest value in toil when they did work. WAGES HAVE INCREASED 100 PER CENT. AND PRODUCTION HAS DECREASED FROM 20 TO 60 PER CENT. Every incentive has been given to bring production up to demand. Liberal pay, working hours that would have seemed like a perpetual holiday ten years ago and conditions surrounding the job approximating club life in former years. Automobile parking places have been provided by employers, and one eastern concern even has a restroom for the chauffeurs of the mechanics who condescend to spend five or six hours, four or five days a week, slapping the job on the wrist.

The doctors having failed, it's time to bring on the surgeons. If the diagnosis has been wrong and if we are suffering from a malignant growth rather than an exaggerated form of laziness, for God's sake let's cut out the cancer, heal the wound and get down to business. This means an operation and a hospital experience. That in turn means a temporary slowing down, but it does not affect the ability of the patient to function perfectly if the operation is successful and he is restored to robust health.

The Times has tried to point out in words of one syllable what all this whispering and head-shaking is about and just how the slowing-down process is to be accomplished. The law of supply and demand is fixed and immutable. Supply, which is another word for production, is far behind and winded. Until the consuming public and the producing worker come to their senses, revive the rules of the game and bring demand back for a fresh start there will be continued distress. To bring this about there must be a slowing down. We have been going too fast. The pace is dangerous. The warnings are set. The candle cannot be burned at both ends and retain its form and capacity.

And so there will be less credit, with tighter money and fewer borrowings; there will be a reduction of the reckless spending for high-priced gew-gaws; efficiency will have a new inning; interest rates will be higher and a few tons of our paper money will disappear; times will be harder; we won't be able to get everything we want because it is not being produced. The worker, skilled and unskilled, may not have half a dozen high-priced jobs from which to pick and choose; it is even conceivable that he may have to permit it to be known that his services are for sale.

To sum it all up, we will demand less. We will apply the brakes. If necessary, we can all wear last year's hat and eat rice instead of potatoes. Street cars will still be operating when gasoline is out of sight. As demand slows down production will automatically narrow the distance between the two, and some happy day it will catch up. Perhaps by then the lesson will have been learned, so that the brakes may be released and the gears slip into perfect juxtaposition; production complementing demand, and demand in reciprocating production. Then, and not until then, we may take to heart and action the repeated abjuration of a certain old professor who told every class after an explanatory outline: "We will now continue as in former steps until our problem is complete."

Wanted, a Cyclone Cellar.

THE ABSENTEE.

The people of California are to be deprived of a spectacle that would have been as good as a spring tonic.

The Examiner, which is the official speakeasy of the Hearst-Johnson combination, sadly announces that its homespun hero, Hiram, will not be able to personally participate in the California primary campaign. The Senator is a fair-sized mass of proud flesh, but this is a large country and he cannot spread himself all over it, much as he would like to.

It is figured that there are sections of the country where his individual appearance would be more important and impressive than on his native heath. His voice is far-reaching and strident—trained to all the arts of the man who thought he had invented perpetual motion—but it cannot penetrate and permeate a country embracing three million square miles. Therefore, the voice will be conserved. It will be turned loose to cajole fresh numbers in greener fields. It had become familiar to California audiences, and the home voters, although charmed by its sonorousness, had learned to do without it. Better to wear it out on those to whom it brought newer delights. They could make a phonograph record of it for home consumption.

So Hiram will not visit and campaign in his native State. What is our loss will be New Jersey's gain. What makes the blow more tragic is the fact that California voters are denied the view of that political reunion which they had anticipated with all the eagerness with which the small boy awaits the coming of Hagenbeck's trained lions. They will be forbidden the exquisite pleasure of seeing Hiram Johnson, Will Crocker, Mike de Young and Frank Flint seated on the same platform with their arms about one another's necks, weeping tears of fraternal joy into the same plug hat. The reservation of the bridal suite at the Alexandria has been canceled. The massive four-poster in which this much-mixed quartette were expected to be lulled into somnolent harmony will instead be used to stable the nightmare of some plebeian Pittsburgh plumber. The brass band which was diligently preparing for a passionate outburst of "Blest be the Tie That Binds" when the reunion was at its most appealing stage have reluctantly turned back to the jazz stuff.

The movie kings who were prepared to use the gathering as a happy family grouping in a great problem play will now have to dig up something on their own account to take its place. The spectacle of Hiram rambling on the sands hand in hand with a bunch of millionaires whom he had heretofore denounced as unfit for him to herd with would have been worthy of an artist's brush, but it is not to be—at least for a while.

The Senator is reluctantly compelled to leave his interests in the keeping of his affectionate comrades. They are to be permitted to give from their "inherited millions" enough of the good old dough to assure the triumph of the Johnson name and arms. But if they fail there will be a reckoning. If the State grows careless in its loves and turns to the fresher charms of Herbert Hoover, then will the Johnson wrath be visited in all its hectic virulence upon this hapless cordon of plutocrats. Words that sting like a lash and sear like a brand will be showered upon them. They will be sent staggering to perdition under the weight of their infamy.

Therefore, the millionaire squad will unbelt—as they say in Vernon. They will loosen up the mazuma and, without stint or limit, finance the campaign of the dense apostle of egomania who but a short season back declared them unfit for his companionship.

But there will be no public reconciliation; no glad-hand business; no kissing of cheeks or embracing on the rostrum. Can it be possible that Hiram still feels as he did of old—that he is accepting the money, the service, the prestige and the toil of these pampered plutocrats, although they still reek with contamination?

The voters will approach the situation with a feeling that they have been denied something. They will feel somewhat as did the populace in the days of Nero, when the supply of Christians would sometimes run out before the barbecue was half over and some of the lions would have to go hungry to bed.

There will be no Hamlet in the California performance, but, thank God, the ghost will walk.

For the love of Mike—de Young.

"SIX DAYS SHALT THOU LABOR AND DO ALL THY WORK."

The same God who laid upon the children of Israel the injunction to observe the sanctity of the Sabbath proclaimed also the holiness of toil and declared that labor is the law of salvation. In this crucial period of human history it behooves us all to give heed not to one-seventh of this commandment only, but to the six-sevenths with which the Almighty glorified toil and translated work into a form of worship.

There is nothing in this commandment that we of the present day are warranted in interpreting as divine sanction for shorter hours or artificial restriction of production. "Six days shalt thou labor"—not six hours a day, not even eight hours a day, but so many hours as may be required to do all thy work. So long as production lags behind the needs of a hungry world, all our work is not done, and every hour wrested from the working schedule of the week is an hour of violence to humanity and of blasphemy to God.

If the executives, the sales managers, the book-keepers, the stenographers and the clerks, the advertising men and those of the sales force do not work with a keener sense of the obligations that rest upon them—if those in the high places do not make their brains more productive, small license shall they have for casting the stone of opprobrium at the ignorant, the brutal and the reactionary in the ranks of organized or unorganized physical labor.—[From "Paragrafs," issued by the Whitaker Paper Company, Cincinnati.

ARAB BOWS UNDER AIRPLANE.

Some of the most modern kinds of warfare have been used in regions where modern civilization had hardly penetrated before. It is an interesting fact that the Arab, who had remained unconquered while all the great empires of the world rose and fell, is at last succumbing before the airplane. He has never admitted allegiance to anyone but Allah and himself and has threatened the lines of communication of all the empires—Babylonian, Persian, Greek, Roman and British. Even at the height of their power they could not overtake his swift horses when he returned to the desert after a raid.

But even the Arab horse has no chance against the airplane. British planes are now able to protect all parts of the line from Suez to India. The French have been using aviators whose nerves went to pieces on the western front to chase the wild tribesmen in the interior of Algeria. And the "Mad Mullah," when recently he began to preach another Mohammedan holy war, was routed by an expedition of British and Italians, who used both airplanes and tanks. —[Home Sector.

TAFT ON THE CONFERENCE.

A Careful and Statesmanlike Summing-Up of the Report of the Industrial Conference Summoned by the President.

BY WILLIAM HOWARD TAFT.

The Industrial Conference, called by the President on December 1 last, made a final report on the twentieth of March. The Secretary of Labor, Mr. Wilson, was its chairman, and Mr. Hoover was its vice-chairman, and its very distinguished membership included two former attorney-generals, two ex-governors and many others who had often shown their impartial and public spirit in the friendly adjustment of controversies between labor and capital. The report is an important one, and will bear careful reading. It embodies the best practical thought and suggestion in respect to the settlement of labor difficulties by negotiation and by arbitration.

The conference had the benefit of the full and free expression of opinion by all sides. Employers and employees and others who came before it were examined at length, what they said was not taken down in shorthand and their expressions were full and free. The report is in admirable tone. It does not meet entirely the views of Mr. Gompers, nor, on the other hand, does it meet the views of many employers. It is judicial and practical in its comments and in the machinery it provides. It does not rely on enforced arbitration or, indeed, on the enforcement of awards or agreements made in accordance with its programme. It relies on the effect of public notice and public opinion formed thereon to give sanction to the agreements reached or the awards made. It presses the necessity of adopting the collective bargaining through "employee representation" as it calls it. It urges that this representation be unrestricted, but that the utmost care be taken to see to it that the representatives of the employees are fairly and freely chosen. It welcomes dividend-sharing as something to aid the friendly relations between employers and employees, but it does not regard it as a complete solution, and it believes it to be inapplicable, in many cases; indeed, it regards the cognate plan of gain sharing, where the employees in particular department or sub-department share in the direct gains in production and in reduction of costs secured by the joint efforts of the management and the employees of that department as of more general utility. This is because the employees can see clearly the relation between their own efforts and the resulting return, and no complicating factors in the making of dividends, for which employees are in no way responsible, minimize their reward. The report considers application of its general principles to employers and employees in public utility work and also to the employees in various subdivisions of government, and believes that a modified form of the same methods it proposes generally can be made useful in these fields. The majority of the commission did not think it well to suggest any provisions for the legal prevention of strikes in public utilities, because it thought that the continuous co-operation of such utilities might be secured through the acquiescence of the employees in the working of machinery created by the plan.

Mr. Gregory and Gov. Stewart thought that the plan should make lockouts and strikes in these essential industries unlawful, pending the settlement of the dispute, and during the period covered by an award accepted by both parties. Mr. Gregory would extend this compulsory feature to the coal mining industry, but Gov. Stewart thought it should be limited to public utilities.

The plan, shortly stated, includes a national industrial board, composed of nine members appointed by the President and confirmed by the Senate, three to be chosen from persons representative of the industrial employers, three from persons representative of industrial employees, and three from persons representative of general interests, especially qualified by reason of knowledge, or experience on economic and general questions. This board is to have general supervisory power and make rules for the general administration of the plan. Then the United States is to be divided into a specific number of industrial regions in each of which there is to be a chairman, to be appointed by the President, who is to be representative of the public interest, to serve for three years and to be eligible for reappointment. He is not to take cognizance of a dispute until he is satisfied that it cannot be settled by agreement of the parties or by existing machinery. If he takes cognizance of a dispute in which the industrial board thinks he ought not to intervene they may restrain. If he does take cognizance, however, he requests each party to the dispute to select two representatives. The appointment of such representatives by each side is to constitute an agreement that the parties will endeavor in good faith to adjust the dispute as members of the regional adjustment conference; and in case of a failure of unanimous agreement of the conference, that they will accept the award by the national industrial board, or by an umpire selected by them, on any question relating to wages, hours and working conditions. Much care is given to the selection of these representatives so as to make them truly representative. In addition to the two thus selected two others for each side are to be selected from two permanent panels of representative employers and employees respectively, appointed by the Secretary of Commerce and the Secretary of Labor, after consultation with representatives of capital and labor. This, then, makes four representatives of labor and four of capital, who, with the regional chairman, constitute the regional adjustment conference. If, after the vote of the chairman, they unanimously reach a conclusion, that is to constitute an agreement, binding on both parties. If they disagree, then there is an appeal to the industrial board, or they may take the matter by agreement to an umpire. If one side refuses to come in and appoint representatives the regional chairman may constitute a board of inquiry by taking the representatives from panels and making an investigation with power to subpoena witnesses and to publish a report. On appeals if the industrial board does not find before it all the facts necessary it may require the regional board to open the case, investigate the facts required and make a finding for its assistance. There is nothing in the whole plan of a compulsory character, except that the regional board of inquiry may compel the attendance and evidence of witness. Action under this plan is expressly excluded, whenever other methods are provided for settlement.

It is quite evident that a statute could be drawn creating this machinery, under the general powers of the Federal government, like those under which the Agricultural Department and the Labor Department were established. The usefulness of the machinery will depend largely upon the discretion of the industrial board and the regional chairman in taking cognizance of labor troubles. It really only tenders its services and doubtless only in an extreme case would it push its board of inquiry into a controversy in which either or both sides declined its tender. It adopts the plan pursued in respect to the National War Labor Board of constituting the tribunal of representatives of both sides. This makes less likely unanimous agreement, but it gives both sides more confidence in the fairness of the court, where it is a court, or in the fairness of the agreement reached where it is only a conference.

It is to be hoped that the recommendations of the conference will be embodied in a Federal statute.

AIN'T IT JUST SO?

Professor Dink Beeson says one
Of the peculiarities about the Human mind is its faculty of ex-
Aggerating the records written
On the memory and kidding itself
Into believing the exaggeration
Instead of the reality, and when
He was a young fellow growing up
He used to hear old-timers tell
About the exciting things that
Had happened in their lives at Times and brag about how strong
The men used to be in their young
Days and how pretty the girls
Were, and how hot the summers
Were and how cold the winters.
And after hearing them talk he Used to feel like he had been
Cheated at being born in so tame
And uninteresting a period of
The world's history, but as he Grew older and memory began put-
Ting in its fine touches he dis-
Covered that he, too, had known
Men and women and winters and
Summers well worth bragging
About to the generation that Comes after.

THREE FALL.

OLD TIMES RECALLED.

The consummation of everything is amazingly increased from the increase of wealth in our metropolis, and indeed in every corner of this kingdom; and the manner of living throughout all ranks and conditions of men is no less amazingly altered. . . . The shopkeeper, who used to be well contented with one dish of meat, one fire and one maid, has now two or three times as many of each; his wife has her tea, her card parties and her dressing room; and his prentice has climbed from the kitchen fire to the front boxes at the playhouse. The lowest manufacturer and the meanest mechanic will touch nothing but the very best pieces of meat and the finest white bread; and, if he can't obtain double the wages for being idle, to what he formerly received for working hard, he thinks he has a right to seek for a redress of his grievances by riot and rebellion. Since, then, the value of our money is decreased by its quantity, our consumption increased by universal luxury, and the supplies which we used to receive from poorer countries, now also grown rich, greatly diminished, the present exorbitant prices of all the necessities of life can be no wonder. —[London Magazine, 1767.

A 'Twixt and Between Irishman.

"My family were Protestant Ulster-folk, and I never felt in the least abused or ill-treated, as I believe we Irish are supposed to be! But when, by chance, I ran across a copy of the United Irishman I realized quite suddenly and with boyish fervor how utterly oppressed we all were! I got home that night and flung my new-found sentiments at the family. I was given about five minutes to recant or be thrashed. I recanted, of course, but kept my own private and exciting thoughts. I bought the United Irishman at newstands, read it surreptitiously, threw it away and came home with a blameless exterior!

"Then one day I discovered Shaw's 'John Bull's Other Island.' It simply knocked me flat. And—I suppose I have never gotten further up than a sitting posture!"

"Are you a political 'twixt and between?" I asked reproachfully.

"I'm afraid so. I'm not a Sinn Feiner and I'm not a Carsonite. Both factions hate me. I am an Irishman, but not a hater of England. I see her mistakes but also her attempts to repair them, and I simply won't wallow in the past for anyone."—[Interview with St. John Irvine.

A TRAGEDY.

Henry had come home after being at college three months. And he was a very changed young man from the village youngster that had been sent away. He had that know-everything air, a patronizing manner toward his whole family, and a bit of black fringe on his upper lip which he was wont to caress affectionately and call a "mustache."

Now that black fringe worried grandmother more than anything else. She complained to grandfather as she lovingly eyed his flowing white beard. "Just to think that your beautiful beard originated from such an insignificant mustache as Henry has now," she deplored.

Back came a retort from grandfather, who was also being much patronized by his grandson. "Worse still," he groaned, "my brain was once just as meager as his now is."

Looks like Hoover all the way in California.

Speaking of the scarcity of houses, there is Col. Edward Mandell.

Why is it that people in a group photograph are always grinning?

With cotton at $1.25 a pound, where do the cheap overalls come in?

Southern California ought to turn up a rip-snorting majority for Herbert Hoover.

Congress is chopping down the estimated appropriations. Sharpen up a bit more.

Deborned sweet cider is the latest in the history of the effort to enforce the Volstead law.

The lease of the Monolith company plant is now agitating the City Council. This is hard, very hard.

"Give us the luxuries of life and we can dispense with its necessities" has become almost a national motto.

Admiral Sims says the spirit of Secretary Daniels was "willing and having seen his duty he did it."

Will the new fad of wearing suspenders solve the high-cost-of-living question? It is a long way from the has no turn.

The Federal Building Democrats are now boosting William Gibbs McAdoo, but the sign is liable to be changed any minute.

David Lloyd George to Millerand, Premier Millerand: "When shall we three meet again, in thunder, lightning and in rain?"

Kid McCoy, who is a member of the local movie colony, has married his seventh wife. But the Kid always was a glutton for punishment.

It strikes us that the usury law is working overtime in the courts. Wonder if it belongs to the union, with extra pay for overhours?

The Democratic minority in the Senate are restive under the leadership of Senator Hitchcock, who does not seem to be able to put them where.

With national prohibition staring us in the face, the raisin growers of the Fresno county country are looking in the future with perfect equanimity.

The Inter-Allied Council evidently intends to settle the disturbed conditions in Europe in its own way without any assistance from its silent partner.

The Department of Labor says that the prices of the necessities of life remain static. Don't notice anything about it or the price of them will be boosted.

Capt. Charles L. Stokes, found guilty to the charge of murder and thus we are to avoid the hypothetical question, for which Lord be thanked.

America's champion hockey team has reached Antwerp for the Olympic games. We don't know anything about hockey, but we admire that American team.

The friends of Herbert Hoover in Southern California must put on their coats and go to work for him. It is time to claim majorities in the primary convention, not before.

Hope deferred maketh the heart sick. The United States Supreme Court met and did not decide the question of the validity of the prohibition amendment to the Constitution.

That earthquake in Mexico certainly had an opportunity to shake the world a good turn. But so far received do not indicate that it took advantage of its chance.

Sir Auckland Geddes, the new British Ambassador, who has just landed, says England has no quarrel with the Irish. This is important.

So far, nothing has been heard from the Martians. This week we were to have some communication, if it was possible. We are a bit uncertain about the ability to signal the faraway folks.

The striking switchmen who have been indicted will now feel the heavy hand of the law that they have violated and outraged. Every lover of good order and right of every corporation to do legal business without molestation will say amen.

There is rich material for a novel or scenario in the act of that man who committed suicide rather than run the chance of being sent back to his native country. The newspapers are full of hostile stories, would make an equestrian statue, but nobody seems to see the human interest paragraphs that teem with the tragedy and the triumphs of life.

In the classic phrase of Cleveland it is "a condition not a theory that confronts us." The idler slacker is as truly a menace as was the one who was a shirker during the war. There can be no real prosperity for labor except through full production. Short hours and high wages and high prices and high costs can result in nothing but disaster.

WHY?

Why build your nest from the stuff of Sages?
Why make your nestings from the mitts' cages?
There's nothing so cold as the dead Ages.
There's nothing to spring in the way of dregs.

Does It Catch You in the Back?

It may be that you are mysteriously attacked by pain in back (lumbago), or limbs, "neuralgic" pains—shooting anywhere, or swollen and painful feet. Pain and backache of any kind are often caused by kidney disorder, which means that the kidneys are not working properly. Poisonous matter and uric acid accumulate within the body in great abundance, overworking the sick kidneys. Perhaps you have become nervous, despondent, sick, feverish, irritable, have headache or spots appearing before the eyes, bags under the lids and lack ambition to do things. The latest and most effective means of overcoming such trouble is, take a single Anuric (anti-uric-acid) Tablet before each meal.

Obtain Anuric at any drug store, or send ten cents to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., for trial package. Listen to this:

Beaverton, Oregon.—"I take great pleasure in stating what Dr. Pierce's Anuric Tablets have done for me in a very severe case of bladder and kidney trouble. For ten years I was distressed. I doctored and doctored but no relief. My last doctor bill was $175.00 and I was no better. I went back to my old home and my folks wanted me to give Dr. Pierce's Anuric Tablets a trial so I did and I also took the 'Golden Medical Discovery' with them to work on the liver. Now I can walk, ride, go to town and go for five or six hours without being distressed. I cannot praise the Anuric Tablets too much for they are wonderful medicine for the kidneys."—MRS. INCORPORATE A NEW TOWN.

Residents of Section Near Long Beach Plan Move.

Thief Robs Desk of Clerk of Police Court.

State Contest Scheduled for Old Men's Playground.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

LONG BEACH, April 22.—Plans for the incorporation of a new municipality north and east of the present city boundaries were announced today by residents in the vicinity of Anaheim street and Hayle avenue, leaders in the movement. Those behind the new city movement assert that the city of Long Beach has failed to protect the section in question by ignoring the protests of more than a score of residents in the immediate vicinity of Anaheim street and Hayle avenue where it is proposed that an old Mexican church shall be moved from a downtown location.

Tuesday the City Commissioners postponed action on a petition presented the legislative body denying a request for the removal of the building. John D. Seerie, commissioner of public works introduced a motion to deny the request Tuesday, but could secure no second to his motion at that time.

There are no Mexicans in the neighborhood of the section where it is proposed to move the old church, but a Mexican community would, by such an act, be created and therefore property values in that vicinity would be materially affected, residents claim.

Anaheim street is one of the few through streets of the city and has built up more rapidly the past year than any other suburban section.

The law firm of Denio and Hart has been retained by D. H. Roush and others to draw up incorporation papers for the new city, which would take in territory from Orange to Loma avenues and extend north beyond Signal Hill. It is estimated there are 9000 persons within the new boundaries.

ROBS OFFICIAL.

Frank Sheek, clerk of the police court, was robbed of $25 and his keys today by a sneak thief. The money and keys were lying on the judge's desk and were stolen while from six to eight persons were present in the room.

The courtroom is located on the second floor of the police station. The keys were ones to the court safe and to valuable cabinets containing dockets, warrants and court records.

It is estimated that 700 delegates to the annual California Auto Trades Association, southern division, which will be held here Friday and Saturday, will be present at the opening session in the municipal auditorium Friday morning. The annual banquet of the association will be held at Hotel Virginia Friday evening. Delegates are expected from every community of importance from Santa Barbara to San Diego.

Celebrating the opening of seven new roque courts in Pacific Park, more than a score of Southern California cities are expected to send representatives to the roque tournament to be held here Saturday under the auspices of the Long Beach Chess and Checker Club. Moving pictures of the "Old Men's Playground" will be made when the tournament is at its height.

TO GREET VETERANS.

Governor Accepts Invitation to Attend Encampment.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

SANTA BARBARA, April 22.—Gov. W. D. Stephens will attend the encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, for the Department of California and Nevada, which will be held here during the first week in May. It is expected that more than 1200 veterans and affiliated auxiliaries will be here for the gathering from all over the States of California and Nevada. Stanton Post, of Los Angeles, the largest post in the country, has secured as headquarters the old Raffour Hotel, a pioneer resort. Extensive preparations are being made for the entertainment of visitors. The city's housing plans are to be assisted by Adjt.-Gen. Borree, who is to send to Santa Barbara several hundred army tents for use of the veterans.

MONROVIA ASKS CITIZENS TO CONTRIBUTE TO FUND; OTHER NEWS.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

MONROVIA, April 22.—A movement to build a community auditorium by popular subscription has been started here and is receiving much support from its inception. The sponsors of the project are asking for $25,000 as a start, and hope to erect a structure that will cost $50,000 when complete. It is pointed out that such a building would be of real and every-day use to the American Legion, Chamber of Commerce, Business Men's Association, besides offering excellent quarters for the new Community Players. It is the purpose of those pushing the plan to make the building a combined gymnasium, auditorium, dancing pavilion, theater and convention hall, with a seating capacity of at least 1000.

Jose Rodriguez, Balloon School soldier, was yesterday given his preliminary hearing on a charge of bigamy before Judge Burr, who bound him over to the Superior Court under bail of $2500. Rodriguez, who was recently transferred to the Arcadia post, is said to have married wife number one in Arcadia, Fla., and then shortly after his arrival here to have taken unto himself wife number two at Arcadia, Cal., without the preliminary of securing a divorce from his first spouse.

Kiwanis Club Holds First Election of Officers.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

PASADENA, April 22.—That easterners are beginning to realize that California is a great national summer playground as well as a winter resort is evidenced by the statement here today by C. W. Nelson, assistant general manager of the Lake Tahoe Railway and Transportation Company, that 50 per cent. of the reservations at Tahoe the coming summer are from eastern people.

"This is the first time," said Mr. Nelson, "that advance reservations have come in such numbers from eastern people. It indicates that at last the country at large is learning that California is a wonderful place to visit in summer as well as in winter. As a matter of fact the Atlantic seaboard resorts cannot compare with California for grandeur or diversity of scenery or variety of resorts and attractions."

TALKS ANTI-VIVISECTION.

Mr. Robert Logan, president of the Philadelphia Anti-Vivisection Society, has accepted an invitation to deliver an address at Pasadena, Tuesday evening, April 27, and Odd Fellows' Hall, at Worcester avenue and Union street, has been engaged for the occasion. The meeting will be under the auspices of ladies of high social position, who have associated themselves with the campaign for the prohibition of vivisection in California by recourse to the initiative. Mrs. Rosemonde Rae Wright, president of the California Anti-Vivisection Society, will preside at the meeting and will tell of the progress of the campaign. Sympathetic workers are asked to volunteer for the work in Pasadena. Phone Fair Oaks 3125 or forward names and addresses to 1067 San Pasqual boulevard.

KIWANIS CLUB ELECTS.

The Kiwanis Club of Pasadena elected its permanent officers today. The club was organized just recently. Kenneth Newell is president; A. C. Kendall, vice-president; R. C. Davis, secretary-treasurer; governors, S. B. Marston, Dr. J. Tyler Parker; Floyd R. James, F. C. Nash, Neal C. Hotaling.

COMING HOME FROM BORNEO.

Methodists of Pasadena support a missionary in far-off Borneo. He is Rev. James M. Hoover and word has just been received here that he is coming home on a furlough. He has just landed in San Francisco and is expected in Pasadena in a few days.

WILL WIDEN AVENUE.

By a vote of four to one, the City Commission today granted the petition of property owners for the widening of Fair Oaks avenue from Colorado street south to Mercantile place.

LEGION TO PARTICIPATE.

The American Legion, through its Pasadena post, will officially take part in the Pasadena Memorial Day exercises this year, cooperating with the Memorial Day committee of the Grand Army of the Republic. Legion members will attend the memorial exercises in uniform and furnish a firing squad for the decoration of the graves at Mountain View Cemetery.

GOOD ROADS IN CHINA.

The good roads movement has struck China, says Wilbur Thomas, 118 South Michigan avenue, who has just returned from a stay of several months in the Orient. It will be a long time, says Mr. Thomas, before China will have roads as good as California's but the Chinese republic has awakened to the need of better roads. It is proposed to have American road engineers make the surveys.

R. A. DENNISON, of Los Angeles, owner and trainer of fine trotting horses, who saw Tanlac put him right back on his feet again, after he had been in bad health for over a year. Declares he is feeling like a new self now.

"For the past year or more I have not been right physically. I didn't feel good at all; had no appetite. On the 22nd I had an awful attack of stomach which nearly drove me crazy and I have been worse ever since.

"About the best way I can describe the way I felt is to say I was just leg-weary and all in. I did not have strength to walk and I gave up all idea of ever doing work. For a long while I had no appetite but would eat something my food never seemed to do me any good.

"I would go to bed at night and would sleep but apparently get no rest, for I would get up just as tired as when I went to bed. I could scarcely go a block but would have to stop and rest.

"Well, I read about Tanlac one day and that reminded me that a friend had spoken about this wonderful medicine, so I got some and began to take it. I had been taking about a week when one evening after supper, I started to walk down to First street and back. Before I realized it I had walked several blocks, and never felt ill at all. Then I realised that the medicine was helping me.

"I have taken four bottles now and am just feeling real good. I am able to be back at the Exposition Stock Yards every day and have just as much energy as I ever had. I get up refreshed in the morning now and I have a real appetite which makes me enjoy three square meals every day. Anyone who needs a good tonic will certainly be satisfied with Tanlac and I am glad to recommend it to my friends."

MISS BETTY NEWMAN WOMAN GOLF CHAMP.

MAKES BEST SHOWING IN THE FEMININE TOURNEY AT GRIFFITH PARK.

Miss Betty Newman of the Ravisloe Country Club of Chicago is the Los Angeles city woman golf champion. Mrs. W. O. Tyron of the City Park Golf Club of Denver won the runner-up cup and also the club put up for second net in the qualifying round by Pro. J. A. Patterson.

Miss Newman gets the gross score cup for the qualifying round and also a handsome token cup outright for the win of a leg on the W. M. Bowen champion trophy.

Mrs. F. S. Yorston of the Truro Golf Club, Nova Scotia, won the second flight cup and Mrs. W. A. Lincoln of Los Angeles the runner-up cup.

Big Doings Today at Annandale Invitation Tourney.

BY PAUD LOWRY.

All previous records for entry lists in a Southern California golf tourney were handsomely busted yesterday when 222 starters teed off in the qualifying round of the Annandale invitation tourney.

Professional Frank Peebles and his hired hands got the gang going promptly at 8 o'clock in the morning. They were sent away in pairs at four-minute intervals until 3:36 p.m., and many finished after dusk.

Dr. Paul Hunter of the Midwick Club shuffled around the course in 76 and copped the silverware for the best gross score. C. H. Palmer, Jr., of the Los Angeles Country Club was second with a 78, and Elmes Ralphs and J. B. Nichols tied for third with 79 apiece.

WAS SURPRISE.

The playing of Nichols was the surprise of the day. Handicapped at "10" his 79 gave him a low net of 69 and a fancy platter.

Only the four players mentioned above shot scores under 80. The first flight includes those who ranged from 76 to 82, one of the latter being relegated to the second round by draw.

The Greens Committee, feeling that no more than eight flights could be accommodated, dumped the faithful with scores lower than 100 into the discard. The 100's with the exception of three got into the eighth flight.

ARRANGES TIME.

Peebles has arranged an elaborate starting time for the various flights today, as follows: Eighth, 8 a.m.; seventh, 8:30 a.m.; fourth, 9 a.m.; third, 9:30 a.m.; first, 10 a.m.; second, 10:30 a.m.; fifth, 11 a.m.; sixth, 11:30 a.m. Two rounds of match play will be waged today.

Hunter's hole by hole score follows:

Annandale par out	4	5	4	4	4	3	5	4	—38
Hunter out	4	5	4	4	4	3	5	4	—33
Annandale par in	4	5	4	4	4	3	5	4	—38	76

English Relay Team Invades America.

Oxford and Cambridge Two-Mile Combination,

Which landed in New York early this week to compete in the Pennsylvania relay carnival April 29 and 30. The party was in charge of Lieut.-Col. A. N. S. Jackson, victor in the memorable race of six years ago when the tall, speedy Briton rowed out McCurdy of Pennsylvania in a heart-breaking finish. Back row, left to right, W. S. Tattham, W. R. Milligan, H. M. Stallard, Col. Strode Jackson; front row, M. C. Rudd, E. A. Montague and Alfred Shrubb, trainer.

AMERICANS COMPLAIN.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

ANTWERP, April 22.—The American team of hockey players who have arrived here apparently do not share the optimism of the local Olympic games committee regarding Antwerp's ability comfortably to accommodate the thousands of athletes and visitors who are coming here for the Olympic games this summer. There has been extreme difficulty in finding hotel accommodations even for the 100 skaters now here in the tourist-crowded hotels.

It is the belief of the Americans that if the American team, which is coming here in August could charter a steamer and live aboard it, arrangements might be made through the War Department to utilize the army barracks in Antwerp as its base. The prices at hotels and restaurants, which already were high, have increased considerably since last month.

CHANGE IN GOLF DATES.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, April 22.—Notification of a change in the dates of the Olympic games golf tournament at the request of the American Olympic Committee was received at the headquarters of that body today. The tournament will be held during the last week of June or the first week of July. It was originally planned for August or September.

Under the new schedule it is expected that several individual players or possibly a team will represent the United States at Antwerp as a number of prominent golf officials, as well as several players, will be in England just prior to these dates. Officers of the United States Golf Association sail for England on May 22 to consult with the Royal and Ancient Golf Club officials regarding changes in the playing rules.

While abroad these delegates and others are expected to take part in the English amateur championship and play a team from Oxford and Cambridge University. The Olympic golf tournament, which follows within a week or two, is expected to attract entries from among these players.

BOXING NOTES.

Richie Mitchell, the Milwaukee lightweight, who is now conceded to be very close to Benny Leonard for a championship match, attributes his splendid showing of late to his training in the navy during the war.

Jack Sharkey and Jimmy Wilde are liable to meet in a London ring in June if negotiations now on go through. George McDonald, acting for Charles B. Cochrane, the London promoter, has the consent of Wilde and is now trying to close with Sharkey. If they meet in England the American boy will not have so much leeway in working along the ropes, etc., as he has been able to do in the States. If he makes 116 pounds ringside for Wilde it is a good bet that Jimmy gets the decision.

Frankie Jummatti's match with Pal Moore in Nashville, Tenn., has been postponed to April 29. Frank, however, will go to Milwaukee and meet Frankie Schmelzer on Friday night.

• • •

Eddie Kane, managing Mike and Tom Gibbons, has sent a copy of a $10,000 check, which is to go as a forfeit and side bet. He says that Tom Gibbons can beat Georges Carpentier.

MAX GOLD TAKES ALLEN INTO CAMP.

Max Gold ran Nolen Allen off his feet in their scheduled semi-final match in the championship class of the L.A.A.C. handball tourney yesterday, winning by scores of 27-20, 21-11.

In class A, Gene Haskell defeated Jay Welton, 20-21, 21-2, 21-12 in the semi-finals. Haskell won the finals of class B by defeating Cliff Rohe, 21-3, 21-11.

In the semi-finals of class E, R. Tracy defeated T. N. Johnhon, 21-11, 21-3. The class D matches resulted as follows: Victor Dixon defeated W. Urwick, 21-5, 21-17; R. Norton defeated W. T. Berry, 21-3, 21-16; and J. A. Platt defeated C. A. Peterson, 18-21, 21-4, 21-20.

AGED HORSE BREEDER DEAD IN PORTLAND.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

PORTLAND (Or.) April 22.—George M. Misner, a generation age one of the best known owners and breeders of trotting horses on the Pacific Coast, died at his home last night. Misner came to Portland in 1880, having been prominent in breeding and trotting horses in California for many years.

Old-time racing men here say that Nellie Patchen, who established a California record for three-year-olds, and Bishop Henry, who is said to have established the State five-mile trotting record on the old Oakland track, were from Misner's Stables.

WHY DIDN'T JUDGE INVITE THE JURY?

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

PORTLAND (Or.) April 22.—Judge Harry H. Belt of Dallas, Or., sitting in the Circuit Court here, forgot that he was trying a case this afternoon and went to the opening baseball game of the season leaving the jury awaiting his return from luncheon. Fears that he had been kidnaped were expressed by some court attaches but inquiry found him in a front row seat at the ball park. He requested a newspaper man to attend to having court adjourned for the day and apologize to the jurors.

BABE RUTH INJURED.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, April 22.—George Ruth, New York's $125,000 batsman, injured himself in batting practice and had to be assisted off the field.

RICE KNOCKED OUT BY SMITH.

LONDON, April 22.—Jeff Smith, the Bayonne (N. J.) middleweight, tonight knocked out "Bandsman" Rice in the second round of a scheduled twenty-round bout.

SHOTSMEN ADOPT NEW PER CENT. RULE.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

DEL MONTE, April 22.—At the annual meeting of the California-Nevada Trapshooters Association the subject of new classification of the various classes was given serious consideration and a resolution was proposed and adopted to change the percentages which have been used in classifying contestants.

The resolution calls for the following new order of classification: Class A, 94 per cent. and better. Class B, 91 to 94 per cent. Class C, 85 to 91 per cent. Class D, all under 85.

At the association meeting the argument was made that under the old system of having Class A shooters all over 91 per cent. worked a hardship on many of the shooters who were not quite good enough to compete against the top notcher. By classing the 94 per cent. or better gunner it will make some fine competition. The same will hold good for the other new classes, as the beginner will now have a chance in having the 85 per cent. or better shooter eliminated from Class D.

The California Indians, a new sportsman's association, that will hold its powwow at Del Monte on May 17 to 23, will put into effect the new classes at its shooting events.

LARGE ENTRY LIST FOR GYM CARNIVAL.

An even 100 contestants have entered the A.A.U. gym carnival for the championship of Southern California, which is to be staged in the L.A.A.C. gym, tomorrow night.

There will be competition on the horizontal bar, flying rings, long horse, parallel bars, side horse, besides tests in tumbling, weight-lifting, rope climbing and an all-round championship, in which five are entered. W. Wattles of the L.A.A.C. will put on an exhibition of Indian club swinging.

The Polytechnic High School Band will be on hand to jazz up the occasion, and the Poly girls will stage some folk dances. There will also be class competition between the various high schools of the South. The events are open to the public.

Gene Fields Unattached Grabs Second Honors.

Plunge Room Packed by Swimming Enthusiasts.

It took a couple of expert accountants, a few volunteer book-keepers and several Burroughs adding machine operators to figure out who won the national A.A.U. diving championships at the Los Angeles Athletic Club last night.

When the figurers had finished their dive into the realm of mathematics they announced that Clyde Swendsen of the L.A.A.C. had nabbed the fancy diving title for the year 1920. The Mercury drink cleaver scored a total of 153 91-100 points.

FINISHES SECOND.

Second on the list was Gene Fields, unattached, who amassed a total of 142 9-10 points, 7-10 more than Louis Kuehn, junior of the Multnomah Club, Portland, accumulated.

Pinkston of Stanford was fourth with 140, followed by Patterson of the Olympic Club with 135 88-100; Haig Priests of the L.A.A.C., 135 4-10, and Gene Mahonay of the L.A.A.C., 108 6-10.

A crowd that packed the plunge room of the L.A.A.C. witnessed the evening's pastime. Several snappy exhibition races were swum, one of the best of which was the 100-yard back stroke in which Ray Kegeris, the Southern California record holder, made the distance in 1m. 16⅘s.

CLEAN SWEEP FOR JACK RICH.

Wins All-Around Track and Field Championship.

Meet is Held at Pomona Under A.A.U. Rules.

Harold Gardner Finishes an Indifferent Second.

Jack Rich was the winner of the all-round track and field championship meet held at Pomona College yesterday. Rich accumulated a total of 5212 points, while his closest competitor, Harold Gardner, had a total of 5100 points.

The competition included ten events, consisting of weight-throwing, hurdling, jumping and running. The meet was conducted under the A.A.U. rules for the all-round competition. Under this system points are awarded in each event according to the nearness with which the contestant approaches the world's record in the event.

SCORES IN ALL.

Rich was the only contestant to score in all events. His lowest score was 207 points in the hammer throw, and his highest 850 in the 100-yard dash.

There were ten contestants in the meet. Harold Gardner was second, Daggs third, W. Gardner fourth, Virden fifth, Morgan sixth, Pattee seventh, Miller eighth, Hollingsworth ninth and Bowman tenth. The lowest score was 2916. This is an annual affair at Pomona, and a permanent cup is up for competition each year.

Charles Daggs, the freshman hurdler, is the first and only man to date to qualify in all the track and field events of the Class A competition at Pomona.

DOC WHITE IS TO MANAGE MUSKEGONS.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH.]

MUSKEGON (Mich.) April 22.—"Doc" G. Harris White, former White Sox pitching star, will not only manage, but will own a half interest in the Muskegon local league team. A deal was closed whereby White and William Hefferon become owners of the local club. White has occupied two weeks organizing the Central League and he is given credit for perfecting arrangements after it seemed that the plan would be abandoned. Only four Michigan clubs will be in the league.

Griggs's Deep Fly in Fourteenth Does the Work.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

PORTLAND (Or.) April 22.—Portland and Los Angeles battled for fourteen innings today in the opening game of the season here before the Angels won out, 4 to 3. Perrine was wild at the start, forcing in one of the runs, made by Portland in the first inning with the bases filled. The Angels had made one in the first on three hits, and went into the lead in the sixth, scoring two on two passes, a sacrifice and Spranger's failure to complete a double play.

Portland tied it up again in the eighth. Three singles and a long sacrifice fly by Griggs in the fourteenth scored the deciding runs. Wednesday's postponed game between the Los Angeles and Portland Coast League teams will be played off here next Monday, it was announced here today. The score:

BLAMES OPEN WINDOW.

Says Quarrel Over Who Would Close It Wrecked the Home.

The story of the open window was related in Judge Monroe's court, yesterday, in the trial of the divorce suit of John and Mary Merrill. Mr. Merrill told the court he wanted to pull down the window because it was getting cold. When he found that the window stuck, his wife volunteered to pull it down. He said he would do it. She retorted:

"That ends it, I am going to leave you."

Mr. Merrill said he tried to effect a reconciliation, but his wife was stubborn, and refused to live with him.

REDLANDS VICTORS IN CLOSE CONTEST.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

REDLANDS, April 22.—The baseball team of the University of Redlands wrestled with the San Bernardino High School team in a practice game here today and won the game, 2 to 1. Alvarado, the steady little heaver for the High School lads, was working good all the time. He pitched a fine game for the Gate City. Bennett, who is rapidly forging to the front on the twirling staff of the university, pitched for Redlands and held San Bernardino to two hits. One of them was a three-bagger by Poole.

Following the game the university men elected William Troyer of Hollywood captain. Kilby was elected last year but cannot play baseball this year because of his track work.

Coach Guy Daniels of Redlands High has entered his half-mile relay team in the all-State meet to be held at Bakersfield on Saturday. Daniels is taking Kubias, Rowe, Simpson, Allen and Hilliard and expects to win first place with them. They left late today and will start tomorrow training on the track at Bakersfield.

DELL BOWS TO FOXY FITTERY.

like to accept substitutes. However, the umpires argue that the bugs have no kick coming. They say that thanks to them, the fans got to see three Vernon shortstops in action for the price of one.

HOME RUN HEAVE.

This was an unusual pitchers' battle, in that the feud was not confined to simple flinging between Fittery and Dell. Paul and Wheezer by their hitting cracked the long row of goose eggs in the eighth, each scoring the first run for his team, and putting the game back into a deadlock, that held until the thirteenth, when Fittery made his second hit and scored on a mammoth heave to the fence by Wheezer, which further carried out the pitching duel idea, as Wheezer began pitching to the fence he spelled his own finish. Not only did two score on the heave, but when Wheezer resumed pitching to the plate he found the distance too short, and the ball was hit back at him for another run.

Fittery, who has been with Sacramento such a short time that not until yesterday did he peel off his Los Angeles sweater, did not seem to weaken. At least he bobbed up strong enough in the thirteenth to sting Dell for a single. McGaffigan bunted. Wheezer took the bunt, and whirling round like a lawn sprinkler, heaved to second. The shot was at once low and strong.

BOUNCES TO CENTER.

It shot into center field, and then to the fence. Chadbourne pursued it under the impression that somebody had made a home run. This wasn't the case, but Fittery and McGaffigan were both making a strong run for home, and both reached it before the ball was returned to the place of beginning. As nobody was out, High, now playing third base, retired Middleton with a fancy assist. Compton crowned a triple to right. Orr popped to High. Eldred scored Compton with a single shot to left, counting Pete. Stumpf died to Eddington. Fittery, despite his sensational sprint, was powerful enough to one-two-three the top of the Tiger batting order in the last of the thirteenth.

The clubs scrapped along on an even basis until the eighth, without getting anywhere. In this inning Fittery furiously flung his bat into the pastime and dragged out a double. He was the first man up. McGaffigan bunted. Dell made the wrong guess. He threw to third, and Fittery beat the play. Mac stole second. Middleton scored Paul with a long fly to Chadbourne. Compton shied to the wrong party, and Orr failed to annex anything at the plate. He merely whiffed. With one out in the second half of the eighth, Wheezer himself countered with a triple to right.

WHEEZER MUDDLED.

Wheezer at first thought that he had merely made a long-distance foul. Not until later did it dawn on him that he had made a genuine three-bagger. Then it was that he began sprinting. But for this early unbelief in himself he might have run it into a homer. But the thing ended all right, as Mares scored him with a single. Chadbourne sacrificed Hap to second, which helped some, but not enough, as Fisher grounded to McGaffigan. The teams then battled noisily, but ineffectively until the thirteenth, when Wheezer began pitching to deep center.

Dell and Red Smith played some great ball between themselves in the fifth. Fred Mollwitz led off by mauling a triple. Cady and Fittery both drove to Smith, who held Mollwitz at third while throwing the runners out. McGaffigan grounded to Borton. The score:

DUNLAP AGENCY HATS AND COATS

"Desmond's"

Madam:

What do you know about the high cost of living?

Many things, you'll say, with 6c sugar selling at 20c to 25c per pound, an increase of about 400 per cent.

And cotton goods—the staple 10c and 12½c gingham selling at 45c to 75c per yard—that's some increase. Sheets—the 55c kind, 81x90, now only $2.50.

You'll be surprised when we tell you that

Millinery as a whole has advanced probably less than any staple line sold on Broadway today.

Why, the pretty Georgette Crepe Hats we have sold for years at $12.50 are but $13.50, not a 10% increase. Staple Milan hemp sailors and ready-to-wears in former years brought $4.48—this year they're $5.00. Genuine Milans have only risen from $22.50 to $25.00.

We repeat it—millinery has not kept step with the general advance in prices.

If you ever could afford a new hat, you now can.

DO NOT MARRY BRIDES' DEBTS.

City Attorney Sings Lay of Freedom for Husbands.

Family Gasless Because of Unpaid Prenuptial Bill.

But Meter of Opinion Shows Company is in Wrong.

W. W. Wingo is not personally responsible for the payment of Mrs. Wingo's gas bill of $19.01, incurred by her before she became Mrs. Wingo, according to an official opinion given yesterday by Deputy City Attorney Leovy and sustained by an official opinion in rhyme by Mr. Leovy's chief, City Attorney Burnell. Mr. Burnell said.

"While considering the legal aspect of a query propounded by the Board of Public Utilities, as to the right of the gas company to turn off the family gas supply because of an unpaid bill incurred by the wife before marriage (which I am going to hold cannot be done) the subjoined 'poem' flashed into my mind. It is not strictly good law, but I believe it is pretty good advice.

"Oh! You take 'em as you find 'em.
For better or for worse,
Sometimes they are a blessing,
Sometimes they prove a curse.

"With all their joys and sorrows,
Yours for life, come weal or woe;
They may keep the cash you give 'em,
You must pay the debts they owe.

"Though you fondly love a maiden
You must still your mind harass
With the mercenary question;
'Has she paid for last month's gas?'

"If you wed with hasty rashness—
As an ardent lover will—
Be prepared to be presented
With her unpaid water bill.

"For you take 'em as you find 'em,
With all their faults and all their debts,
Be a sport and pay the rock'ning
Without a lot of vain regrets!"

Mr. Leovy in his opinion says:

"It is my opinion that the gas company did not have the right to shut off Mr. Wingo's gas and of course had no right to make the reconnection charge.

"I do not hold decisions to mean that a husband is liable for the debts of his wife contracted before marriage, but where a judgment is rendered for such debts (against the wife) an execution may be had against the property of the community. This does not create a liability against the husband for such debts."

The Wingo case has attracted a great deal of attention among attorneys on account of the primary principle involved, of the responsibility of a husband for debts contracted before the marriage. Attorneys for the gas company are fighting the case before the Board of Public Utilities and their side of the controversy will be heard when the board considers the dispute next week.

A Woman's Mistake

Substitutes Often Worthless

It is a well-known fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the most successful remedy for woman's ills obtainable. Actually thousands of women have proved this to be true. Notwithstanding, some women make the mistake of trying something else, said to be just as good, simply because it is new.

Is it not foolish to risk the possible bad results of such experiments—and is it not better to depend upon a medicine that you know is reliable—a medicine that has had no equal for more than forty years?

Read what these Women Think About It

North East, Md.—"I was in ill health four or five years and doctored with one doctor after another but none helped me. I was irregular and had such terrible pains in my back, I never got out of bed. I broke down each side that I had to go to bed three or four days every month. I was very nervous, tired, could not sleep and could not eat without getting sick. A friend asked me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I am sorry I did not take it sooner for it has helped me wonderfully. I don't have to go to bed with the pain, can eat without taking sick and have more strength. I recommend your medicine and you can put it here to publish my testimonial."—Mrs. Warren, R. F. D. 4, North East, Md.

Utica, N. Y.—"I was all run down and had no energy or ambition and no strength to do my work. I went to the doctor's office every other day and could barely crawl up the stairs to get there. My friends thought I was going to my death. Finally a friend told me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I got a bottle and in two weeks' time I felt like a new woman. Two bottles did not more good than the doctor's medicine had done in ten. I kept on until I had taken six bottles and felt like a new woman. Now I do all my own work besides all kinds of sewing. I will recommend it when-ever I can."—Mrs. Clement Gleason, 60 Pine St., Utica, N. Y.

HE'S TALLEST BLOND.

FORMER PICTURE LEAD IN "FRIENDLY ENEMIES."

By Edwin Schallert.

Louis Mann, who will come to the Mason following Guy Bates Post, has captured a former leading man of the pictures, who is well known to many cinema players here, as a member of his "Friendly Enemies" cast. This is Alan Hale, who used to play featured roles with Selznick, Metro and Fox. Among the pictures in which he appeared at that time were "The Price She Paid," "The Whirlpool" and "The Lone Thief." He is rated as one of the tallest and blondest actors on the stage and in the films.

Several other very well-known actors are with Mr. Mann in his New York success, among them Jess Dandy of "Prince of Pilsen" fame.

Evelyn Nesbit Approaching.

Evelyn Nesbit has the compass set westward in her present vaudeville tour, and will shortly appear at the Orpheum.

Novel on Screen.

A picturization of Stephen Fox's novel, "The Valley of Tomorrow," is to be the chief attraction at Miller's Theater next week, it is announced. Among the players in this picture are William Russell, Mary Thurman, Fred Malatesta and Frank Clark. The film was made with the magnificent scenic beauty of Lake Tahoe as a background.

Features Mollie King.

Picture fans will have a chance to see Mollie King on the screen locally next week at Tally's. It is a long time since this star has appeared in a photoplay at a Broadway picture house.

"Women Men Forget," in which she plays the feminine lead, was directed by John M. Stahl, who produced a rather unusual picture some months ago called "Wives of Men," in which Florence Reed was starred.

Played in Classics.

A notable addition to the cast of "The Silver Horde," Rex Beach's photoplay, which is to show next week at the California, is R. D. MacLean, prominent in the drama of yesterday. He played in Shakespeare with Mme. Modjeska and also appeared with Mrs. Leslie Carter. He had the leading male role in David Belasco's "Heart of Maryland," in which his wife, Odette Tyler, was co-star. This will be his first debut on the screen.

Ornstein Plays Tonight.

Leo Ornstein will have a rehearsal with the Philharmonic Orchestra this morning, preparatory to appearing tonight at Trinity. Mr. Ornstein is to play a Rubinstein sonata and a feature of the performance will be the demonstration of Ampico reproduction of the pianist's performance.

The Philharmonic Orchestra is to have an informal outing at the old Modjeska home in Orange county Sunday, through the courtesy of W. A. Clark, Jr.

Another Fashion Revue.

A second fashion revue is to be staged by Sid Grauman, beginning next Monday at his theater on Third and Broadway. Mr. Grauman declares that this affair might well be called a Democracy Fashion Revue, inasmuch as there will be displayed gowns well within the reach of the ordinary purse, yet elegantly designed and attractive in color scheme.

Community Play to Stay.

"A Successful Calamity," by Clare Kummer, is to enter the second week on Monday, according to announcement from the Hollywood Community Theater. The production, which is staged under the direction of Neely Dickson, features Winter Hall and Betty Linley in principal roles.

"Everywoman" Repeat.

"Everywoman" in the film version is showing at the De Luxe Theater today. This picture is an elaborately produced version of the celebrated stage drama. Violet Heming plays the principal role, and others in the cast are Wanda Hawley, Theodore Roberts, Bebe Daniels, Monte Blue, Irving Cummings and Raymond Hatton.

Sylvia Breamer Film.

The photoplay "Dawn," with Sylvia Breamer and Robert Gordon in the principal roles, heads the programme at the Hippodrome. The vaudeville attractions include the Bingham four in songs and dances, Cooper and Valle in nonsense, Willis Gilbert and Company in a dancing and acrobatic novelty, Morrison and Vance in a comedy act, Violet and Lewis, aerialists, Kinkaide and Kinkaide in a ventriloquial turn.

Vernon Signs Again.

Bobbie Vernon, the comedian in Christie Film productions, has just made another contract for a long term with that organization. Vernon has achieved great success in a large number of pictures made for the comedy organization. His latest feature to have shown here was "Petticoats and Pants," directed by William Beaudine. He is at present engaged in a film special which will be released in June. In the cast are Charlotte Merriam, Teddy Sampson, Neal Burns and Vera Steadman.

"Confession" Showing.

"The Confession," in the third week at Clune's Auditorium is now being presented for the benefit of the American Commission for Devastated France. The picture contains a highly dramatic treatment of a priest's inability to break the vow of the confessional. Face with the possibility of his brother being hung for murder, he dare not reveal the true culprit. The story culminates in an exciting final rescue of the innocent victim.

"The Forbidden Woman."

Clara Kimball Young is appearing twice in the same block this week, for just north of the Rialto where her picture, "For the Soul of Rafael" is showing, "The Forbidden Woman" is having a second run screening at the Garrick. In this feature Miss Young portrays a sirenic actress, who has to work out an ill-fated destiny. The picture is very attractively costumed and staged.

Follies Girl in Films.

Jack Pickford will be supported in his next Goldwyn picture, Shannon Day's "The Man Who Had Everything," by Miss Priscilla Bonner, a former Ziegfeld Follies girl, who has just finished work with Tom Moore. Al Green will direct.

FLASHES.

STAR'S STAGE DEBUT.

MILDRED HARRIS CHAPLIN AT LITTLE THEATER.

By Grace Kingsley.

Two announcements of importance regarding the Little Theater were made yesterday. One is to the thrilling effect that Mildred Harris Chaplin, famous both as the wife of the world's most popular comedian and as a film actress, will appear on the stage. She is to make her debut at the Little Theater within a fortnight, in the farce "Sick-a-Bed," in which Wallace Reid played the leading masculine role. This will be Mrs. Chaplin's first appearance on the speaking stage.

The other announcement is to the effect that Oliver Morosco, well-known Los Angeles and New York theatrical producer, and Frank Egan, head of the Egan School and producer of the Egan Little Theater, yesterday made a joint agreement to produce New York successes at the Egan Little Theater. This activity will not affect the productions at the Morosco Theater, but will make this city a double-production center for the Morosco plays.

The Egan Little Theater is to be renovated, and improved, and a balcony is to enlarge its seating capacity. The final plans were made public yesterday, following the receipt of a telegram by Mr. Egan from Mr. Morosco in New York. The telegram from Mr. Morosco reads as follows:

"Owing to the fact that I have so many plans and so many new productions lined up for the coming summer and winter, I will send you some New York successes from time to time for production at the Little Theater, Los Angeles has grown to such proportions I believe I can keep you supplied as well as the Morosco, and the new house on which I shall start construction as soon as I arrive there in the next month or six weeks. Please arrange to put a balcony into the Little Theater, and do not use an orchestra."

Arrangements have been made by Mr. Egan to install metropolitan lighting in front of the theater.

Gladys Brockwell Leaves Fox.

A startling announcement was received yesterday from no less a person than the lady herself, viz., Gladys Brockwell, to the effect that she is severing her relations with the Fox Film Corporation.

"The Fox company held another year's option on my services, but I did not wish to continue," said Miss Brockwell. "Though I part with the Fox people on friendly terms, I am glad the connection is at an end. I have received a number of offers, but before even thinking of taking up any of them, I shall have a fortnight's rest. I shall go to Big Bear, in all probability, and won't do anything except to eat and sleep, and maybe read a book or two."

This is the second popular Fox star to resign in the past fortnight. Madlaine Traverse left last week.

Miss Brockwell's former leading man, William Scott, has likewise left the Fox company, and will freelance for a while, having received a number of offers of good salaries with other companies.

Wheeler with Kosmik.

L. C. Wheeler has arrived in Los Angeles from New York. He is treasurer of Kosmik Films, Inc., of which George Kleine is president. Mr. Wheeler is personally supervising productions to be released by this organization. For years Wheeler was prominent in the United States secret service. He was stationed at the White House during the Roosevelt and Taft administrations. He served during the war as representative of the United States Department of Public Information, division of films. Also he has the distinction of accompanying the King of Siam on his tour of the United States some years ago.

Other news concerning Kosmik Films is to the effect that they are producing at Universal City; that Stuart Paton of "Twenty Thousand Leagues Under the Sea" fame has signed a long-term contract with the organization, and that Grace Darmond and George Chesbro are co-starring in a production being made by that company.

Miss Minter at Stanford.

Grace Gordon Dances.

Grace Gordon, the pretty premiere danseuse in the first Bible picture, "A Letter to Philemon," is a pupil of Theodore Kosloff, the famous master of the Imperial Russian ballet. Miss Gordon had her first film experience in comedies. Elizabeth Craig and Edith Slack appeared with Miss Gordon in a classical dance staged at Santa Barbara a few days ago.

King Vidor's New Boat.

King Vidor bought a shanty-boat for "The Jack-Knife Man." He mentioned that the craft might be sent to Los Angeles.

"If ye take th' leetul box to sea yer blood's sure yer own handa," warned the old riverman.

Bert Lytell's Latest.

Bert Lytell, Metro star, came back from location yesterday, with a brand new one:

"Don't know where he got it, that fellow, but I met him in the village street, staggering along. Suggested to him maybe it would be better to stop a few minutes in a picture show. We went in, and presently he began sobbing quietly to himself.

"What's the matter?" I asked. "Why don't you sit quiet and look at the picture?"

"'Sno good, ol' man,' sobbed the fellow, "ve gone stone deaf." Can't hear a bloomin' thing the actors are saying!"

Houdini Heard From.

Harry Houdini, who expects to return to this country next winter, to go into pictures again, sent me clippings from London papers showing that he is having wonderful success with his magic. Also relates that he meets his celluloid double every once in a while in a picture house.

Talk About Efficiency!

The live chickens in Jack Cailicott's pastoral prologue to "Down on the Farm," at the Kinema, are laying eggs every day. So, even if the show should close in drawing power, the house management should worry!

Viola Dana Rests.

Viola Dana has been spending the past few days in San Diego, resting up before starting work on "Head and Shoulders," her new Screen Classics picture, next week. William C. Dowlan will direct this photoplay.

Miss Dana is reported to have "rested" to such good purpose, over in Tia Juana, last Sunday, that she came back $500 to the good.

Gareth Hughes will play the lead in Miss Dana's new feature.

Irene Rich,

Who is playing the feminine lead in Will Rogers' picture, "The Strange Boarder," at Miller's.

FAIL TO CONVICT ACTOR.

Jurors Disagree in the Case of Stage "Hypnotist," Accused by Girl.

After deliberating nearly ten hours over the evidence in the case of Robert McNat Godwin, who was tried on a statutory charge involving Thelma Steinbrenner, aged 16, disagreed last night, and Judge Gavin Craig continued the case to 10 a.m. Tuesday.

The girl, whose testimony was read from the transcript of the preliminary hearing, asserted that Godwin hypnotized her and committed the alleged offense against her. Mrs. Godwin, wife of the defendant, and another witness testified that the defendant could not hypnotize anyone, and that the so-called hypnotic act he produced at local theaters was a fake.

ROGERS IN HARD FIGHT.

Lawyer in Legal Battle to Steer Clear of Asylum at Patton.

The fight of Earl Rogers, criminal lawyer, against being sent to Patton on a charge of excessive use of stimulants, centered yesterday about objections raised by his attorneys, Greer, Richardson and Coles, to admitting the testimony of Dr. Charles Bryson, on the ground that it would disclose the confidential relations between physician and patient.

Judge Myers took the objection under advisement and continued the case until Monday. If Dr. Bryson is permitted to testify the District Attorney believes the hearing will be materially shortened. Capt. Bogart Rogers testified to peculiar actions by his father.

Ann May's Mamma Soon.

Ann May, Charlie Ray's new leading woman in "Peaceful Valley," is not to be unchaperoned for long. She expects her mother to come West from her home in Cincinnati within the next few weeks. She will buy a home here.

U.S.C. Faculty Joins Move Against Clothes Cost.

So Board Announces Rise in University Salaries.

Students will Wear Ancient Duds to School, Too.

The first overall banquet in Los Angeles took place last night when 100 professors of the University of Southern California faculty held their annual social evening at the City Club. The men were dressed in overalls and khaki and the women in gingham gowns.

The only business transacted at the meeting was the announcement by President Bovard of an increase in the pay of the instructors. Details of the rise have not yet been worked out, but Dr. Bovard stated that a new schedule will go into effect very shortly as a part of the "greater university" plan.

Dr. Ralph T. Flewelling, head of the department of philosophy, clad in khaki and with a red bandana handkerchief, acted as toastmaster.

At the close of an impromptu programme of humorous addresses, a court was declared with Dr. Rockwell D. Hunt, head of the department of economics as judge; Dr. W. Franklin Jones, dean of the school of education, as prosecutor, and Prof. Hugh Willet, principal of the university high school as bailiff.

Prof. Andrew A. Life was the first defendant accused of wearing a stiff collar and black coat. He was declared guilty with the penalty of returning home minus these articles. Dr. E. A. Healey, dean of the college of theology, was charged with wearing black shoes, and was penalized to return to his seat with grace. Prof. K. Inui was accused of wearing a high collar, Miss Katherine Beers of wearing jewelry and pearl buttons and Dr. C. E. Leitzell with wearing a black coat. All were fined by the court with exception of Dr. Leitzell who it was proved, is endeavoring to secure endowment for the university and therefore was allowed to continue his work unmolested.

Students of the University of Southern California are planning to go the faculty one better and to wear overalls and old clothes to school next week. A petition was circulated among the students yesterday which was largely signed, pledging the signers to wear old clothes as a protest against the high cost of clothing.

A notice was posted in the Hall of Records yesterday bearing the slogan, "Wear Your Old Clothes," and calling for a meeting at the Broadway entrance of the Courthouse tomorrow evening. At this meeting the high cost of living will be discussed.

PLEDGE AMPLE CARS FOR CALIFORNIA FRUIT.

GROWERS IN VICINITY OF LOS ANGELES ARE ASSURED OF ADEQUATE SERVICE.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Assurances were received today from the commission on car service, American Railroad Association, that every effort would be made to provide adequate supply of cars for the movement of the season's crop of fruits and vegetables in the vicinity of Los Angeles. It was stated that the use of ventilated box cars will be in excess of any previous period.

The Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, Washington office, was advised that California shippers must co-operate to expedite the return of empties. An order to this effect reads as follows:

"It will be necessary that ventilated box cars be withdrawn from other service and forwarded promptly to the owners empty via the most direct route, provided loading is not immediately available direct to southern territory, including Texas.

"When moving box cars on commission on car service orders care should be taken not to apply ventilated cars unless the order so specifies.

"Originating roads will economize on ventilated box cars by the use of ordinary box cars during the period weather conditions will permit."

SHE HAD A RETURN.

Come-Back Coupon Stops Divorce on Desertion Plea.

Mrs. Leah McDermott, who asked for a divorce on the ground of desertion in Judge Monroe's court yesterday, was denied a decree when it appeared that when she went to Chicago to get married in 1917 she had a return coupon on the pass and came back to Los Angeles just before the pass expired.

She testified that her mother telegraphed she was ill and hurried to Los Angeles. Here a doctor told her she was in ill health and could not survive the climate in Chicago. She wrote her husband to come here and he refused.

SPLENDID OFFERING OF Elsinore Alfalfa, Fruit and General FARMING LANDS!

Elsinore Valley, just three hours away from Los Angeles, is one of the most beautiful of our inland valleys of Southern California, with its picturesque lake and surrounded by hills and snow-capped mountains. Climatic and living conditions enjoyed by residents of Elsinore Valley are not to be surpassed by any other inland valley of Southern California.

Subdivided Into Ten and Twenty-Acre Tracts

The fruit land subdivision of the South Elsinore Development Company begins about two miles south of the city of Elsinore, and offers the man or woman who is thinking of buying a piece of good unplanted fruit land a real bona-fide opportunity to purchase in units of ten and twenty acres the very finest fruit land under splendid water and climatic conditions.

No better soil to be found anywhere in California. Rich sand loam. The soil bed is from 30 to 50 feet deep and the land has just enough general slope to irrigate well without washing.

Water in great abundance has been developed both for irrigation and domestic purposes. This water is of very fine quality and soft in nature. Over nine hundred inches of water have been developed up to the present time for this tract.

We are offering this land at prices ranging from $400.00 to $450.00 per acre, and each piece carries with it a share of water stock in the South Elsinore Mutual Water Company.

The Elsinore Farm Bureau Center

have given their approval and recommendation to the planting and culture in this territory of the EARLY NAVEL ORANGES, GRAPE FRUIT, WALNUTS, OLIVES, APRICOTS, PEACHES and ALFALFA, as well as both winter and summer vegetables and melons.

For Non-Resident Owners

We can make arrangements for those who cannot immediately come down to develop their property to have trees selected, planted and cared for by experienced and responsible fruit ranchers who are living in this tract and developing holdings of their own. All of this work to be done under the direct supervision of Mr. F. A. Anderson, Vice-President of the California Growers' Association, and a successful fruit grower. This makes it possible for a lawyer, physician, merchant or any business man or woman to buy land in this fruit land subdivision and have it started right, developed properly and safely notwithstanding the fact that they are not ready to move onto the land and look after it themselves.

DAILY TRADE TALK.

Economy Must Cure Our Ills; Oil Stocks Decrease; Money Demand Heavy.

BY CHAPIN HALL.

In the long run the application of old-fashioned economy is what will bring about a return to normal conditions. Economy will slow down demand, and a lessened demand will soon balance production. Bankers are telling their customers that productive loans must be given the right of way. Some borrowers can't see it. They have become accustomed to stepping up to the teller's window and getting what they wanted. Bank loans are unwieldy. Those borrowers who borrow just for the sake of borrowing, or because they want to buy something and have not the ready funds available, must learn the lesson of economy all over. The end of our riotous living has come.

The export demand for foodstuffs seems to have been overestimated, but in spite of this there is no lowering of domestic prices. Large stocks are either being held until Europe does want them, or they are so readily absorbed at the prevailing prices that there is no effect.

Traffic delays have recently added to the seriousness of the situation, and there is a growing shortage of many commodities. When this occurs it is the first thought of many dealers to raise the price. It is one thing to increase the cost because of a production shortage, and quite another to increase it because there is a delayed receipt. One is legitimate business, the other smacks strongly of profiteering.

Economy on the part of the public, teamwork on the part of the producers and common sense on the part of the workers are three of the essentials which must be realized before we see the beginning of the end of present conditions.

Oil Shortage.

The California oil shortage is increasing in seriousness. There was a deficit in March of 1,102,704 barrels, a daily shortage of 35,571 barrels, and an increase over the February shortage of 3690 barrels daily. March production was about normal, according to the Independent Oil Producers' Agency, but shipments exceeded the February shipments by 759,348 barrels. The daily production was 312,448 barrels. Stocks on hand April 1 were 34,866,470 barrels. Fifty-two wells were completed in March, with an initial daily production of 4500 barrels. This is an increase of eighteen completions over February, but a decrease in daily production of 13,900 barrels. Seventy new rigs were erected, an increase of twenty over February. There were 364 wells drilling during March, an increase of seventeen strings over the 347 wells drilling in February. There were 2185 wells producing during March, an increase of thirty-two over the February figure of 2103. Abandoned wells during March totaled twenty-seven, fourteen more than in February, when thirteen were abandoned.

Moving Day for Brokers.

New York brokers have advanced a new and novel excuse for a day off. They say that so many offices will be changing location on May 1 that a holiday is desirable.

Hardware Prices.

Hardware prices continue to skyrocket. Nails and builders' supplies are scarce, and the recent rail tie-up has not helped matters any. The demand for hardware is good, with builders' hardware and tools most in demand.

Money Demand Heavy.

The demand for money continues heavy. One banking house estimates that $250,000,000 will be asked within the next few months. This includes some large projected equipment loans by the railroads. Money is high, and 7 per cent. seems to be about the figure pegged for the next five years. Corporations are willing to pay what they must to get it. Government bonds and treasury certificates are bringing under discount or at terms of issue around 6 per cent. Good foreign obligations run from 6 to 10 per cent. Obligations over $200,000,000 have recently come into the market at 7 per cent. or better. Municipals, tax free, up to 5½ per cent.; industrials at 8 per cent., and many other high-grade investments present a bargain-counter of choice which has never been duplicated in the financial history of the country.

Back to the Farm.

Trade talkers have been trade-talking to representative farmers from different sections of the State. These men say that unless something is done to stop the trek from the farm to the city, production will fall far below normal, with the inevitable reflection in prices. Because of the high pay to be secured in other lines farm workers have been deserting in large numbers, and those who have remained demand city prices and city hours. The simple life of the farm is simple no longer, and $5-a-day milkers and harvest hands is one of the reasons for the high cost of produce, which we formerly purchased at low cost. Farmers this year will plant only what they see a reasonable certainty of harvesting, and many crops will be greatly curtailed.

Fat Man's Chance.

A local store is figuring on establishing a fat man's department, where out sizes will be carried, and the citizen who packs extra poundage may retire with others of his kind away from the comments of his skinny contemporaries. The idea has been tried successfully in the East.

Foreign Traders Coming.

Several special trains carrying eastern delegates to the foreign trade convention, to be held in San Francisco, May 13-15, will come this way and stop for brief inspection trips to the harbor and other points of interest.

Copper Shortage.

That a shortage of copper metal will develop within the next twelve months, and that the price of the metal, now selling around 30 cents, will show a radical advance, is the prediction of authorities who should be well qualified to guage the situation.

A Portland Mist.

The quarterly Business Digest issued by the United States National Bank of Portland, Or., says the financial atmosphere is hazy. Some bankers describe it as being in a mist or fog, without precedent and without chart. "Never in all the ages before have financiers had to face a situation such as we have at the present time. Credits have been manufactured by all the nations to such an extent that we stand apalled at the magnitude of it all. The demand for loans at the present time in the United States in every section is perhaps the greatest bankers have experienced."

Katella School Bonds.

The Bank of Italy bid a premium of $728 for a $33,000 issue of 6 per cent. bonds, issued by the Katella school district. Other bidders were Torrance, Marshall Company, $417, and Frank & Lewis, $82.50.

Ontario Six Per Cents.

Wood, Gundy & Co. of Canada and E. H. Rollins and Sons are offering a new issue of $6,800,000 Province of Ontario, 6 per cent. gold bonds, due April 15, 1925. The bonds are being sold at a price to yield the investor 7.20 per cent. Interest and principal are payable in gold in New York. The bonds will also be offered locally by R. H. Moulton & Co., who are participating in the issue.

United Corporations.

The United Corporations Company, organized in Los Angeles early in January by F. W. Rayburn, founder of the Consolidated Realty Company, reports activity in "its field, the organization and financing of corporations, and the loaning of money on all kinds of improved properties on an amortization plan. The company is backed by a strong group of well-known local men, including F. W. Rayburn, president and general manager of the company; C. C. Loomis, vice-president; J. C. Rendler, W. J. Tummonds, J. W. Dodd, Earl Sandusky and Judge Frank F. Oster.

Sinclair Sells Past.

The bonds of the Sinclair Consolidated Oil Company, which were offered locally yesterday, are selling very rapidly, according to a statement made yesterday by Harold B. Reed, local representative of Blair & Co. Local participants in the issue are the Guaranty Trust and Savings Bank, Home Savings Bank, Cahn, McCabe & Co., Citizens' National Bank, Drake, Riley and Thomas, A. E. Lewis & Co., National City Company, Paul B. Hammond & Co., Orton and Wolff and George H. Burr & Co.

Union Bank Club.

Morris Klein, assistant cashier of the Union Bank and Trust Company, presided at the April meeting of the Union Bank Club. Milton Schwartz was a guest and addressed the organization. Mrs. Catherine Cattanach, statement clerk; J. W. Lewis and Paul E. Neuschaefer, assistant cashiers, also spoke, and special musical numbers were furnished by Miss Shirley, Miss Irvine and Miss Bishop.

A California Issue.

A California issue, consisting of $1,250,000 C. L. Best Gas Tractor Company, 7 per cent. cumulative preferred stock, is being offered today by Cyrus Peirce & Co. The C. L. Best Company, founded in 1886 by Daniel Best, has been in successful operation for more than thirty years, its factory being located at San Leandro, near Oakland. The stock will be retired by the establishment of a sinking fund amounting to 10 per cent. of the annual surplus earnings of the company. With the proceeds of this issue the capacity of the factory will be doubled. The stock is being sold at $93.50 to yield 7½ per cent., but if retained until retired by the sinking fund, the net yield will be increased to between 8½ and 9½ per cent.

Ticker Ticks.

Average price of twenty industrials yesterday 95.93, a decline of 3.55 per cent. Twenty rails, 71.64, a decline of 1.63 per cent.

The Washington government will do everything possible to prevent interference with Mexican oil properties.

The Future Growth of California is Limited by Power Development

Representing an expenditure of over $50,000,000, eleven electric plants, with a combined capacity of 208,000 kilowatts, will be completed this year or next, according to an announcement by State Power Administrator H. G. Butler.

As an industrial and manufacturing center California is in its infancy. Our total hydro-electric development is only 725,000 horse-power at the present time. The new supply will therefore increase the existing supply by about 30%.

Mr. Butler made this further statement: "The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company, in my opinion, is only the advance guard of these manufacturers (Eastern manufacturers who are considering locating in California), and that Company alone when it reaches full completion will take 100,000,000 kilowatt hours per year, 3⅓% of the total 1919 output of practically all the plants on the Pacific Slope between Oregon and Mexico."

No form of investment is backed by a stronger and more continuous demand than the investments of California hydro-electric companies. In a comparatively few years all railroads must turn to electricity for power. The demand is always in excess of the supply. We firmly believe that from the standpoint of safety and continuous earning power California hydro-electric securities rank first among corporation securities.

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, April 22.—The stock market today recovered much of the ground lost yesterday, despite the effort of short interests to effect further shrinkage of quoted values.

Today's operations strengthened the belief that yesterday's reversal was for the weeding of weakened speculative accounts.

Prices were lower in the first hour after an irregular opening, many popular issues extending yesterday's losses, but at mid-day the rally began, continuing with little interruption to the end, actual gains extending from 3 to 20 points.

Assurances that local monetary conditions were fundamentally sound were borne out by the easy rate for call loans, which ruled at 7 per cent throughout the session. Time loans ruled steady but there were no indications that an advance of interest and discount rates is contemplated.

Stocks that suffered greatest depreciation yesterday were among the first to recover. General Motors, Crucible Steel and affiliated issues, as well as loans, equipments, textiles and the food group being most conspicuous at the firm close. Sales amounted to 1,875,000 shares.

Foreign exchange was not a factor in the day's improvement, the rate on London reacting again with concurrent reversals in remittances to continental Europe.

New low records were made by Liberty Bonds, first 4s and first 4 1-4s breaking 2 and 2.40 per cent. respectively, though hardening slightly with other issues at the close. The total sales (par value) aggregated $32,375,000.

Old United States bonds were unchanged on call.

The business of the Company is confined to the manufacture and sale of tracklayer tractors. Its plant at San Leandro, California, is organized and equipped for the highest efficiency in the manufacture of its product.

PURPOSE OF THIS ISSUE

To materially increase the capacity of the plant, enabling the company either to greatly add to its present output of "Best 60's" or, if it so desires, to manufacture a large number of machines of smaller size.

CAPITALIZATION

On completion of this financing

	Authorized	Outstanding
Common Stock	$5,000,000	$1,000,000

The corporation agrees, commencing with January 1, 1923, to establish a sinking fund of 10% of its annual surplus earnings after payment of dividends on the Preferred Stock, but before payment of any dividend on the Common stock, which sinking fund shall be used to either purchase Preferred Stock in the market if obtainable below the call price, or to call the same by lot as follows:

Stock callable at 100 for 5 years from date of issue.
Stock callable at 102½ for next 3 years.
Stock callable at 105 for next 5 years.
Stock callable at 110 thereafter.

EARNINGS

During the six years ended December 1, 1919, the net earnings of the company have averaged 27.06% of the invested capital, or approximately four times the rate of dividend on this issue of stock. For the year 1920, from orders now on hand, it is estimated that the net earnings will be equivalent to over eight times the dividends on this issue of stock, without including any earnings from the increased plant capacity.

SAFEGUARDS

This issue will be preferred both as to earnings and assets and will be non-assessable.

The net quick assets will be over $100 for each share of this Preferred Stock; the total net assets of the Company, upon completion of this financing, will be over $200 for each share of this Preferred Stock and both must be maintained at these amounts.

No other issue of preferred stock having priority over this issue may be made without the consent of the holders of 75% of this issue in writing.

Until all of the Preferred Stock shall have been redeemed no mortgage can be placed on the property of the Company, nor can the Company issue any debentures or other obligations the maturity of which shall be longer than one year from the date of issue, unless said debentures mature at least in annual equal installments, and unless the issuance of such debentures shall not impair the ratio of assets to Preferred Stock as stated.

No dividends can be paid on the Common Stock if there is any default in any of the conditions vs.

LIVING EXPENSES

A few years ago, anyone with $25,000 invested in good 6% securities had sufficient income to live in comfort.

Today that $1500 income will not cover the actual living expenses of the average family. Therefore, the small investor and those of moderate wealth must find an investment that pays a higher interest rate or else one with an assured interest yield that can be purchased at a price below its real worth and has every element necessary to increase in value; thus by the increase of the principal, giving a total yield that brings the investment up to a point that shows a satisfactory return. We suggest that investors of this class at once investigate the merits of

POTATOES AND ONIONS MAKE SHARP DECLINE.

LETTUCE IN HEAVY SUPPLY AND IN POOR DEMAND; CITRUS FRUITS FIRMER.

A slump in the market for potatoes and onions was the outstanding feature of yesterday's session on the local produce market. In general a firm tone prevailed for the majority of the offerings, particularly the country arrivals, which were mostly of good quality and in fairly good demand. Arrivals of local lettuce, however, were heavy, and the result was that the market failed to absorb the country offerings. Carlot and express receipts were very small, and limited as to variety.

The potato market was unsteady yesterday. The situation was due principally to the fact that the arrivals of new potatoes were very heavy. Lower prices ruled for the new stock, owing to the liberal supplies, and old stock, as a result, was in very slow demand. Practically the same condition existed in the onion market. It was anticipated that the movement of the new crop of onions and potatoes will be well under way within the next few weeks, and that prices for both commodities will continue on the downward trend. All varieties of onions fell 50 cents per crate, hundred prices for the yellow and Spanish varieties ruling around $4.00 to $6.50 per hundred, while the White Globes were down to $6.00 and $7.00 per hundred. Imperial Valley onions were also very liberal in supply, and the latter fine variety was weaker, showing a decline of 50 cents per crate from last week's ruling prices for the best stock. Northern and Idaho Russet potatoes declined 25 cents per hundred, while the choice stock were 50 cents per hundred below the quotations of the preceding day. The market for new potatoes shows sharper, under arrivals of Imperials from the country. Heavy new potatoes were off 50 cents per crate, compared with the choice grades declined 50 cents per box.

Cauliflower was in ample supply, but the offerings, with the exception of the finest quality, sold that lower prices ruled for all grades. Best local stock was selling as low as $1.25 to $1.60 per crate, while Watsonville stock was quoted at quotations of $1.60 to $1.75. By the field crate cauliflower made a decline of 25 cents. Tomatoes, although arrivals were light, declined 50 cents to $1 cents per crate, according to quality and condition of the offerings.

Other lines were practically unchanged. A firmer tone prevailed for citrus fruits, with orange prices showing a gain of 25 cents per hundred for all grades. Grapefruit and lemons showed little change, but were in good demand throughout the session.

Some of the oil leaders were slightly stronger, Liberty Bonds were lower, some new records in that respect being established when fourth 4 1-4's dropped to 85 3-4 and Victories to 96 1-4. Associated Oil regained some of the losses of Wednesday and sold from an opening of $109 to a strong close at $111. Republic Petroleum also showed strength, advancing from 35 1-2 to a close of 36 5-8 with sales in the afternoon as high as 37 cents. Union was in good shape and sold up to $187, a gain of three points and a quarter over the Wednesday close. United Oil was weak around 75 cents. Both industrials and mines were weak, the leaders in each, Goodyear preferred and United Eastern, selling down to $99.50 and $2.52½, respectively. CORN MARKET OPENS WITH LIQUIDATION.

HEAVY MARGIN CALLS WEDNESDAY WERE RESPONSIBLE FOR THE SELLING.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, April 22.—Liquidation was on in grains at the start, corn being ½@¾ lower at the opening, and oats unchanged to 1¼ lower. Heavy margin calls Wednesday night were responsible for the selling, and sentiment was decidedly bearish. At the low point corn showed 10¼ of 11½ under the high of the previous day, and oats were off 3¼@3⅝.

Price fluctuations were extremely rapid, bulges and breaks of 1 cent or more following each other without apparent cause. Toward the last there was rather general covering by commission houses, the close was 1 lower on May and 5@6c higher on the distant deliveries of corn, which ranged 4.90@5.00 at the close. May leading.

A break of 7@8 in cash corn and 20¾ in oats was due to readjustment with futures the leading feature, the previous day being very bullish. Shorts placed liquidated.

RECOVERIES ARE MADE BY MILO AND BARLEY.

A mixed sentiment prevailed among local grain traders during yesterday's trading on the local exchange, but following the recovery of the Chicago market milo and barley reacted slightly toward the call, with a better feeling apparent at the close of the session. Nearby deliveries of milo were stronger, although there was little interest taken by the traders in these deliveries on account of the carryovers, which are 25 cents per ton higher. Cash barley failed to respond to the firmness of the preceding day, the close being prices ruling about 25 cents per ton lower for the nearby deliveries. A strongly bullish feeling prevailed before the session, all May and June options closing advances of 50 cents per ton, all July meeting up 75 cents per ton and all September options showing an advance of 75 per ton. A sale of 15,000 bushels of barley was made at 3.01½, with 100 tons of milo changing hands at 3.13½, totaling 2,500.

Dated: May 15, 1920. Due: May 15, 1925.

Interest Payable May 15th and November 15th.

Redeemable as a whole or in part at the option of the company on sixty days' notice at 105 and interest if redeemed on or prior to May 15th, 1921, and thereafter at 1% less for each year or part thereof elapsed after May 15th, 1921, except that in case notes are issued with Stock Purchase Warrants attached, those notes not accompanied by their appurtenant warrants will be redeemable at par and accrued interest.

Interest to be payable without deduction for the normal Federal income tax up to 2% per annum which the company may be obliged to withhold.

Coupon Notes in denominations of $100, $500, $1000 and multiples thereof; notes may be registered as to principal in denominations of $1000 and multiples thereof. Total authorized issue, $75,000,000.

Chase National Bank, New York, and Central Union Trust Company of New York, Trustees.

For information regarding these notes, we refer to a letter dated April 19, 1920, of Mr. H. F. Sinclair, President of the Corporation, which appears on the accompanying pages and which he has summarized briefly, as follows:

SECURITY: To be secured by pledge of all the capital stock and other securities of subsidiary companies now owned or hereafter acquired. The company may not, and will not, permit any subsidiary, to create any liens unless deposited under the trust agreement, excepting liens on marine equipment and tank cars and purchase money obligations.

EQUITY: The Corporation's outstanding capital stock at current quotations represents an equity of about $150,000,000, ranking junior to these $50,000,000 notes.

ASSETS: The consolidated balance sheet as of December 31, 1919, certified by Arthur Young & Co., together with proceeds of this issue, shows total net assets available for the notes of over five times these notes, the net quick assets alone on this basis being equal to over 1.60 times these notes.

EARNINGS: Consolidated net earnings from operations after Federal taxes, as certified by Arthur Young & Co., public accountants, show net earnings available for interest, depletion, etc., as follows:

Year ended December 31, 1917	$15,134,967
" " " " 1918	19,640,717
" " " " 1919	21,890,898

These earnings for 1919 equal 5.83 times the annual interest on the new notes and for three years averaged over five times such interest.

CONVERTIBLE: Each $1,000 note to be exchangeable for 10 shares 8% Cumulative Sinking Fund Preferred Stock (par $100 each) and 2½ shares Common Stock without par value. The notes may instead carry detachable warrants entitling the holders to purchase said amounts of Preferred and Common Stock for $1,000 (plus accrued dividend on the Preferred Stock) up to May 15, 1922; thereafter, the notes are to be convertible on the same terms, but only if accompanied by warrants (if any) originally attached. In case of redemption, the right to convert extends up to 30 days prior to such redemption date.

SINKING FUND: Commencing January 1, 1921, the company will provide a semi-annual sinking fund of at least $2,000,000 to be applied within sixty days to the purchase of the notes at not exceeding 100 and accrued interest. If notes are not available for purchase at that price any unexpended balance will revert to the company. Credit is to be allowed the sinking fund by reason of notes retired by conversion or through the exercise of the purchase warrant privilege.

PROPERTIES: The Corporation through its subsidiaries owns and controls oil producing properties in many fields in the United States and Mexico; a thoroughly modern pipe line system of about 2,800 miles; 10 modern refineries with a daily capacity of over 45,000 barrels; extensive marketing system in the United States and foreign countries; in short, the properties comprise a complete unit in the oil industry.

The legal proceedings are being passed upon by Messrs. Rushmore, Bisbee & Stern, and by Messrs. Hornblower, Miller, Garrison & Potter.

Temporary negotiable receipts will be delivered in the first instance which will be exchangeable for definitive notes, when, as, and if issued and received by us.

It is expected that application will be made to list both these notes and the Preferred Stock on the New York Stock Exchange.

We offer these notes, subject to confirmation and approval of counsel, when, as, and if issued and received by us, at

CASH NEED IN HOOVER FIGHT.

Millionaires Back Johnson Machine; Money Required to Break its Grip.

Money is the prime need in the campaign to elect in California a Republican delegation pledged to support Herbert Hoover for President. While the Johnson machine in this State, backed by a coterie of California millionaires, is raising a large sum to promote the Johnson cause, the organization that is fighting for Mr. Hoover is crippled by lack of funds.

Every citizen, therefore, who is opposed to the domination of politicians, and to machine rule generally, can fight most effectively with his dollars. The Hoover campaign and the cause of efficient government can best be served right now by sending cash contributions to Henry S. McKee, vice-president of the Merchants' National Bank, Sixth and Spring streets, Los Angeles, and treasurer of the Hoover Republican Club of Southern California.

HIRAM TOO SAVAGE.

"Johnson's extreme radicalism and his savage fight to obstruct the League of Nations are big factors in Southern California in winning support for Hoover," declared both Mr. Lyman and W. B. Leeds, in charge of the city organization. "We find this especially so where business men and women are asked to express a view. They regard Johnson as unsafe at the head of a big business like our national government—impossible in fact."

In the Hollywood district a group of the most prominent film actors has organized an Actors' Hoover Republican Club, in affiliation with the central club. J. Warren Kerrigan, an ardent admirer of the former Food Administrator, is president; Edwin Carewe is vice-president, and Owen Moore, secretary. Jack Livingston, another prominent film star, is co-operating in the membership campaign, which the organization is extending through the studios. F. G. Dennison, assembly leader in the Sixty-third District, is assisting. Studio meetings will be held from now on until the campaign closes, and five-minute talks in the interest of Hoover's candidacy will be made by leading actors.

SHOWS UP JOHNSON.

Johnson's hypocritical stand on woman's suffrage in the nation was denounced yesterday by James E. Reynolds, former superintendent of the schools of Ventura county, in a communication to the Hoover Republican Club. He said:

"Hiram Johnson's father is reported to have advised his more or less distinguished son, when the latter first began practice, that in a law case he should 'claim everything, admit nothing and keep fighting.' Apparently the Senator has made this the guiding rule of his career and in accordance with it is logically and necessarily a bitter ender. By his supporters he is now claiming, it appears, to have given the vote to women in California. The writer very distinctly remembers standing with the Senator and another in front of a Ventura newspaper office one day during the State campaign preceding the election in which the suffrage question was settled. The third person present, a man well known to all Venturans, asked Mr. Johnson what he thought of woman suffrage. Taking his brier from his mouth, he replied, in substance, that he 'was not much interested in it and didn't see how it could do any good.' Being myself a suffragist, I was disappointed at the reply, and for this reason, possibly, remember the occasion so clearly."

NEED MORE DOLLARS.

Mrs. Ida R. Koverman, in charge of the "Hoover Dollars Campaign Fund," yesterday urged that as many of Mr. Hoover's supporters, who found it inconvenient to bring in their contributions, should enclose a dollar in an envelope and mail it to headquarters, 712 South Spring street.

"We will need many dollars yet to win our battle for Hoover," she said, "and therefore ask his supporters not to delay sending or bringing in their aid. This campaign has been surprisingly successful because the people generally want to aid in a campaign for decency in government. They are beginning to realize, too, that Mr. Hoover's chances are growing brighter daily in California, and that their dollars are helping him to win."

SAYS REPRESENTATION IS DISPROPORTIONATE.

Declaring that every precaution should be taken in the selection of the fifty-one members of the City Planning Commission, which has been created, a committee consisting of Joseph Mesmer, Mrs. A. W. Francisco and Mrs. R. H. Variel, appeared yesterday before the directors of the Chamber of Commerce and urged them to direct that a thorough investigation be made of the proposed personnel of the commission.

Mr. Mesmer told the directors that the list submitted to and now under consideration by the City Council contains the names of but two residents of Boyle Heights and two from the north end of the city, "which means," said Mr. Mesmer in his protest, "that the sections in which 70 per cent. of our citizens live will, if the list stands, have but four representatives on the commission. The entire city should have a square deal on the selection of this commission and I believe that the Chamber of Commerce should thoroughly investigate the list as proposed and submit a report on its findings."

The directors took the matter under advisement. Action by the Council Committee of the Whole, on the commission was postponed yesterday for one week.

How Many People Know There Are 32 Teeth?

So few men and women reach their twenty-first birthday with every tooth intact, that most of us hardly remember that we had 32 teeth to start with.

"Acid-Mouth" is undoubtedly the chief reason why we lose so many teeth comparatively early in life. 95 in every 100 people are said to have it.

Los Angeles has three large ship-building plants which have at the present time unfinished contracts approximating one half million tons. The weight of the ships now being built is 8,500 tons each and 6 months is required to build one. Practically all of the equipment such as boilers, engines, etc., is built by Los Angeles concerns.

A Shipload of Food

THE ACCOMAE, a vessel built at Los Angeles Harbor in 1918 is said to be the first of any built here to reach France. This ship contained some $200,000.00 worth of food stuff donated by the good people of Los Angeles.

Water commerce plays a large and important part in supplying all nations with food, clothing, machinery and other materials. Lying at our door are the markets of the world. Bordering on the Pacific dwell two-thirds of the entire world's population. South America and the Orient are demanding our products as well as other Pacific Coast and Eastern Cities.

The advantages of living and working in Los Angeles will continue to serve as a strong magnet in attracting countless thousands to our city—where Nature most certainly helps Industry most. While we can hardly be catalogued among ship-builders or manufacturers, we do make and display a variety and quality of food that has brought to us a most liberal patronage.
